GUN NO KEY TO COLD BEER HOT SLUGS PROVE USELESS

During the brewery strike in Victoria, somebody was really "hard up" for a pint.
This was revealed today by Mike Wilson of the B. Wilson Co. Ltd., to city police.
Wilson told officers that someone during the last six weeks tried to get into the refrigeration room by firing pistol shots through the door. Beer was stored in the room.
Eight 9 mm. shots were fired through the door.
Whoever did it stayed "dry." No entry was gained.

Collision Death Brings Charge

Victoria Driver Free On $3,000 Bail
On Manslaughter Count; No Inquest Set

Following death of accident victim Mrs. Jean Taylor, 70, of Ladysmith, a charge of manslaughter was laid against a young motorist at a special sitting of Saanich police court today.

Charged was Leslie Marlow, 1303 Yates. He was remanded to Dec. 20 at the request of counsel, Arthur Dawe, to set a date for the preliminary hearing.

Injured last Friday afternoon in a Gorge Road West collision, Mrs. Taylor died in Jubilee Hospital at 6.30 today.

Mrs. Taylor suffered fractured legs and other injuries, police said.
Magistrate A. I. Thomas set bail at $3,000 for Marlow.

Mrs. Taylor's death was the 13th recorded from traffic accidents this year on Victoria and district highways. It was the fourth death in Saanich for the year.

Cars driven by Marlow and Mrs. Christine Harris, 45, of Saltair Station Road, Ladysmith, daughter of the dead woman, collided just west of Harriet Road in the Gorge hill curve, Saanich police reported.

Mrs. Harris is still in Jubilee Hospital. Her condition is reported as good.

Marlow was also injured in the crash. He appeared in court wearing a bandage on his forehead.

No inquest date has been set to probe the circumstances of the death of Mrs. Taylor.

Reds Turn Down British Proposal On Prisoners

PANMUNJOM, Korea, Dec. 11 (UP)—The Communists rejected today a United Nations proposal for a man-for-man exchange of war prisoners during a Korean armistice.

They also refused to disclose the location of their prison camps or permit international Red Cross representatives to visit them unless the Allies agree to free all 120,000 Red prisoners during the truce.

The Reds at the same time took back an offer made only a few hours earlier to permit the American troop rotation program to continue if the Allies agreed to "neutral" policing of the armistice.

The stubborn Communist stand in twin, simultaneous subcommittee meetings in adjacent tents at Panmunjom left the armistice negotiations still deadlocked with only 16 days remaining before the Dec. 27 target for agreement.

Both subcommittees will meet again at 11 a.m. Wednesday.

The day's sole favorable development was the sudden Communist agreement to appointment of the new subcommittee on war prisoners and the holding of its first meeting.

'Yankee Clipper' Quits; Baseball No Longer Fun

NEW YORK, Dec. 11 (UP)—Joe DiMaggio retired today after 13 seasons as one of the greatest stars in baseball.

DiMaggio said he hasn't decided about his future, but Yankee president Dan Topping said, "Joe will remain in some capacity with the Yankees."

The New York Yankee slugger—famed the world over as "The Yankee Clipper"—announced his decision at a dramatic press conference.

DiMaggio had been fading the past two seasons at the age of 37—but before that he spent 13 seasons as a big league star and four before that as a star of the San Francisco club in the Pacific Coast League.

"I told you fellows last spring," DiMaggio said in announcing his decision, "I only wish I could have had a better year but even if I had hit .350 this would have been the last year for me."

"You all know I have had more than my share of physical injuries and setbacks during my career."

"In recent years these have been much too frequent to laugh off. When baseball is no longer fun, it is no longer a game, and so I've played my last game of ball."

DiMaggio, who played in 10 world series during his 13 seasons with the Yankees, did not immediately announce his future plans.

"I feel that I have reached the stage where I can no longer produce for my ball club, my manager, my teammates and my fans the sort of baseball their loyalty to me deserves," he said.

DiMaggio was seen in a photo of him in a Yankees uniform, swinging a bat.

Island Auto Insurance Rates Increased 11 To 34 Per Cent

Public Held Responsible

VANCOUVER, Dec. 11 (CP)—Increased traffic toll on the highways today brought an announcement of higher automobile insurance rates for British Columbia motorists.

The increases, effective Jan. 1, range from 11.2 to 34 per cent, the higher rate applying to policy holders who allow drivers under 25 years of age to use their cars.

"The public sets its own insurance rates," said a spokesman for the B.C. Underwriters' Association.

Drivers under 25 have had what was termed a "terrifying record" of spectacular and costly accidents.

The increase does not apply to existing policies until the renewal date.

For policy holders who allow drivers under 25 years of age to use their cars the premiums have been raised an average of 27.2 per cent throughout the province.

In the Greater Vancouver area this will only be increased by 20.4 per cent, while on Vancouver Island the rates are raised 33 per cent and 34 per cent in rural areas.

AVERAGE BOOST

For autos not allowing drivers under 25 the average B.C. increase is 1.2 per cent.

The rate increases are for private pleasure cars carrying fire and theft, $50 deductible and bodily injury and property damage policies. The last is required under B.C.'s pink slip law. Insurance for private cars used for business purposes goes up 16.6 per cent.

The independent automobile conference of B.C. which represents most of the non-board companies who write about 50 per cent of car insurance in the province, is expected to announce similar increases.

The underwriters announced an extension of protection of existing policies. The new scheme will go into effect with all insurance companies in Canada with the exception of those in Newfoundland and Quebec.

The added protection will extend coverage to replacement cars used while the owner's car is being repaired. Coverage will be extended to insure a new car or second car for 14 days, pending notification of the insurer.

GREATER COVERAGE

Collision, theft and fire policies now will include attachments in cars such as radios. It will not cover two-way radios.

The public will be able to buy other protection also, such as medical expenses incurred by passengers who suffer bodily harm caused by an accident while in the insured car.

Comprehensive coverage which includes in addition to fire and theft, protection against glass breakage, loss caused by missiles, floods, vandalism and other perils. This would not include collision.

Gales Lash Philippines While 23 Die

MANILA, Dec. 11 (AP)—A typhoon howled out into the China Sea today leaving 23 dead and tens of thousands homeless in the devastated central Philippines.

The Philippines News Service reported 200 were missing. The tropical cyclone ripped across Leyte, Cebu, Negros, Panay and neighboring islands Monday. Winds of 130 miles an hour blew away thousands of houses and thatched huts, drove ships ashore, uprooted trees wholesale. Torrential rains flooded rivers, washing away bridges and flooding sugar cane fields.

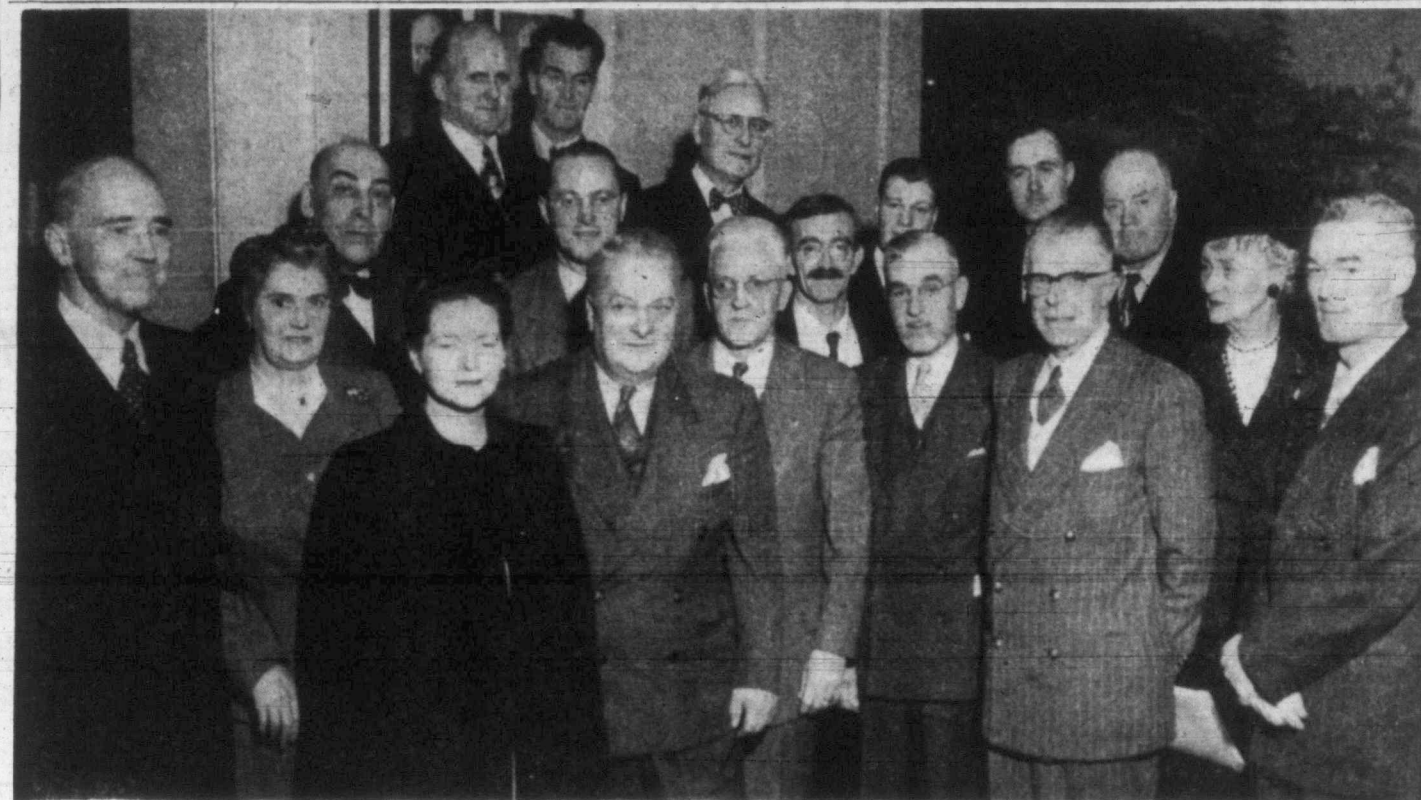

Meanwhile, 20,000 refugees fled Camiguin Island and its erupting Hibok-Hibok volcano. The eruption killed at least 266 people. Another 500 are estimated buried under lava and ashes.

Proudfoot Policies Accepted

City prosecutor James J. Proudfoot has won his tussle with Victoria Police Department for greater control in the laying of prosecutions.

Orders were laid down by Chief of Police John Blackstock today that, except in minor cases, the prosecutor must be consulted by all ranks of the police department before charges are laid.

This ended the dispute brought to a head last Saturday when Proudfoot, who has held the post two months, threatened to resign unless he had firmer control over the laying of charges.

WAS IGNORED

The prosecutor's complaint, it was learned, was that sometimes when charges were laid, the evidence did not back them up in court and they had to be withdrawn. He claimed he should be consulted first.

Under the new directive by the chief to the department "all matters must be referred to the prosecutor before charges are laid, other than violations of the streets traffic by-law, speeding or drunk in a public place."

"In the event a man is arrested and it is necessary to proceed with the charge without the knowledge of the prosecutor, then all the circumstances must be set out to the prosecutor before the charge goes to court," the chief ordered.

Cooper Denies West Canadian Bid For H.B.C.

LONDON, Dec. 11 (CP)—Sir Patrick Ashley Cooper, governor of Hudson's Bay Company, issued a statement today denying suggestions that control of the company may be shifted to Canada.

The company's headquarters "continue in London, its policies remain unaltered, its assets stay intact," Sir Patrick said.

He said there is no support whatever for reports published Monday in Toronto, and reprinted by British newspapers today, that a group of Western Canada financiers is trying to obtain control.

"These reports were inspired by 'considerable' recent activity in Hudson's Bay shares. It was true there was some movement of shares from the United Kingdom to Canada, but the number of shares held in that country totaled less than 12 per cent of the company's capital."

Pleven Wins

PARIS, Dec. 11 (Reuters)—The French government today won a life-and-death vote in the National Assembly, defeating a move to delay ratification of the "Schuman Plan" to pool coal and steel resources of continental western Europe.

BINGO RULING IRKS WOMEN

MOUNDSVILLE, W.Va.,

Dec. 11 (AP)—Fifteen women bingo players threatened to throw Police Chief Raymond Gillespie into the Ohio River for shutting down their games.

Mayor Wilbert Minor last week ordered the city police department to wipe out illegal gambling.

After hearing the women at a city council meeting Monday night the mayor said his edict did not include bingo.

60 Walkout

HALIFAX, Dec. 11 (CP)—

Sixty men walked off their jobs at Ferguson Industries, Pictou, today protesting the dismissal Monday night of seven fellow workers.

REQUEST FOR ROMANCE

Royal Couple Share Part In Gay Evening

By ROBERT MUSEL

LONDON, Dec. 11 (UP)—Requests by Princess Elizabeth and the Duke of Edinburgh for "One Kiss" and "Sweethearts" added a romantic touch to one of the "bluest" shows ever produced before British royalty.

A bevy of American stage and screen stars and some of Britain's top entertainers presented an hours-long midnight show marked by some of the lustiest cracks ever heard in public by the Royal family.

Princess Elizabeth, wearing a silver blue lame gown, and the Duke sat in a box to the right of the Coliseum Theatre. He is president of the N.P.F.A. and chairman of the benefit committee.

After a series of double-meaning jokes, British comedian and master of ceremonies Tommy Trinder said:

"Every time I crack a gag everybody looks to the right. What's happening?"

The minked and jeweled audience looked right again during a racy Sadlers Wells ballet called "Facade," in which a male dancer pointedly examines the "facade" of his female partner.

The audience applauded vigorously when Princess Elizabeth requested opera star Dorothy Kirsten to sing "One Kiss" from the operetta New Moon.

Opposition Attempts To Topple Iranian Government Of Mossadegh

TEHRAN, Iran, Dec. 11 (AP)—

Opposition deputies made a bold bid today to topple the government of Premier Mohammed Mossadegh as a Nationalist mob battered the parliament (Majlis) gates, shouting for the blood of the aged premier's opponents.

Inside the packed building several persons were injured as supporters and opponents of the government fought briefly with fists and feet, delaying the parliament session.

When the Majlis chamber finally was cleared of press and public and the session opened, opposition deputies at once leaped to attack the premier, whose oil nationalization program ejected the British-owned Anglo-Iranian Oil Company and ended Iran's chief revenues from oil production.

Some 500 army troops, armed with rifles and bayonets, were parked outside the building in trucks.

Yelling at the top of their lungs, the opposition accused Mossadegh of leading Iran into terror and ruin and demanded that he resign.

The crowd outside, realizing that the eight-month-old government was at stake, raced for radio loudspeakers to hear the broadcast of the session.

Opposition deputies didn't heed the clamor outside. As Mossadegh walked unsteadily to the rostrum, his opponents in the chamber jeered, booed and banged at their desks in an angry uproar.

Spaak Denounces Britain And Assembly; Resigns

STRASBOURG, France,

Dec. 11 (AP)—Belgium's Paul-Henri Spaak, leading advocate of European unity, resigned today as president of the European Consultative Assembly. He denounced European politicians—especially British representatives—for pleading special interest and blocking unity plans.

The former Belgian premier and foreign minister then took the floor and challenged the assembly to clothe Europe's unofficial parliament with real executive authority.

He spoke as both the assembly and its upper house, the Council of Europe, appeared hopelessly deadlocked over moves towards European unity. Neither the assembly nor the council has power to enforce decisions. The assembly passes on recommendations to the council—a committee of foreign ministers—which in turn makes recommendations to national governments.

TIMID POLICY

In a rousing ovation, Spaak declared the assembly had adopted a timid policy in proposing weak and limited international "political authority" for the projected European army.

"He berated the assembly action as 'truly without character' and a 'waivered down compromise' framed in the vain hope of winning British support."

Turning towards a member of the British delegation, he said: "You talk as if we had decades to talk of sovereignty and an eternity to decide."

He criticized the resolution, which urged some member states to establish a limited political authority for the direction of the European army force within the Atlantic Pact and in association with Britain.

GRAVE CRISIS

"If you cannot do more than that," he said, "we are at the end of the road."

Spaak said that as president all he heard was a series of reasons why Europeans could not unite. The Germans, he said, wanted national unity first, the Belgians wanted Britain to join first, the French refused to join up alone without Germany, and the British kept referring to their "special position."

He declared Europe is facing a grave crisis "flaring on the fear of Russia and an American charity" and unable to agree on strength through unity.

Big Four Will Resume Talks On A-Bomb Ban

PARIS, Dec. 11 (UP)—

The Big Four announced today they have agreed to resume talks on outlawing the atomic bomb and on general disarmament in a new United Nations commission.

Britain immediately warned against letting hopes for disarmament be raised "falsely."

The United States, Britain, France and Russia disclosed the agreement in a communique summarizing the failure otherwise of their 10-day effort to reconcile conflicting East-West views on disarmament. Both held out strongly for discussion on their own terms.

Debate on the Big Four report in the 60-nation political committee of the U.N. was opened today by British delegate Selwyn Lloyd. The debate is expected to bring a Russian vote against the West's disarmament plan.

HOPES OF MILLIONS

Speaking for all Big Three western powers, Lloyd said that although there was agreement in principle on the machinery for discussing disarmament, the Big Four totally disagreed on the major issues to be discussed—especially control of the atomic bomb.

ONE WOMAN'S DAY

By NANCY HODGES

ARE 'BOWLERS' BACK

WHILE ENJOYING that rib-tickling comedy "The Lavender Hill Mob" at the Odeon the other day, I noticed that the "bowler" worn by the mild-mannered villain of the piece evoked much laughter from some of the younger members of the audience. At the same time, it reminded me that this particular form of headgear was once the hallmark of respectability in English business circles.

Curiously enough, among the crowd emerging from the theatre after the program, I noted two well-known "men of distinction" wearing bowlers—a somewhat unusual sight in Victoria where Joe North has for years been almost a monopolist in this particular style of headgear.

CORRECT COVERING

THE BOWLER is almost as British an institution as roast beef and Yorkshire pudding once was. In one Old Country shipyard, it was the custom for generations for the management and foremen to wear bowler hats at their work. The result was that at a glance amongst the hundreds of employees you were able immediately to identify the man in charge.

It used also to be considered the correct covering for the well-dressed man about town, as well as for the bank clerk and the city "gent." But while in Britain this summer, I noticed that the once ubiquitous bowler had given way, to a large extent, to the so-called soft hat, the less formal fedora.

CORRECT COVERING

SO I WAS AMUSED to read in—above all things!—a Weekly Garden Talk in the London Times, written by a Mr. Cuthbert, that bowlers are back. I assume that he justified this seemingly odd digression from gardening topics by his observation that "the bowler hat used to be the badge of the head gardener, and coupled with his balze apron he looked the personification of knowledge and authority."

Having thus established his authority to speak on the subject, Mr. Cuthbert notes, with evident pleasure, that an expert on men's fashions had decreed the bowler to be the right and correct headgear for the well-dressed man.

RINGING THE CHANGES

SUCH A DECISION sent him delving into the reasons for the return. "Could it be," he asks, "the result of a wave of optimism? Could it be that men felt they were due for a change of headgear to coincide with the change of government, and in hopeful vein proceeded to wear the hard hat at a rakish angle?"

There may be something, of course, in his idea that Englishmen, who are usually so convention-bound when it comes to dress, may have taken this way of expressing their hope that the current austerity is destined to end under the new governmental dispensation. And no one would deny them the right to hope—and to express it in whatever way they thought fit.

DIGNITY OF ITS OWN

AFTER RUMINATING upon the decline of the bowler over the years and mourning the passing of its peculiar dignity, he goes on:

"It may well be that its subsequent decline was not entirely unconnected with our changing political views, because of recent years some have even considered it to be anti-social to wear a dinner jacket at a function. Be this as it may, I for one will welcome the return of the bowler hat, which I feel imbues the wearer with a sense of dignity and purpose—and, goodness knows, we are going to need plenty of dignity and purpose to face the future."

DECLINE AND FALL

I CHUCKLED at Mr. Cuthbert's inference that the decline and fall of the bowler was partly attributable to the concurrent rise to power of the Socialists. It almost looks as if he suspects labor of regarding the bowler at a badge of servitude—or something. However, his final paragraph dispels such a libellous thought with this apotheosis of the hard hat:

"Let us not be misled into thinking that the bowler hat is a symbol of class distinction. It could never be that, for in many of our rural districts it is worn by all and sundry as a mark of respect at weddings and funerals. Whatever may be our choice in hats, we must never forget one thing. We all start from the same common mould. Some by their merit will ascend to the heights, others will work by the sweat of their brow, but all may wear a bowler hat with equality."

Juvenile Home Leaves Credit For Esquimalt

Esquimalt municipality has wound up with a $1,117 credit balance in its share of operational costs of the juvenile detention home in 1951.

Mr. W. H. Dallaway reported Monday night that of a $5,230 estimate set aside for the year, only $4,112 has been spent.

Following news of the surplus came word that the municipality faces an increase due to salary boosts for a case worker and stenographer in Juvenile Court.

The municipality will pay $232, plus a wage increase of $41.96, retroactive to July 1, as its share of operational costs of the court.

New Defense Film Yours For Asking

A new civil defense film is now available from the Canadian General Electric Company for any groups interested in this field.

The movie was made by the March of Time and depicts the vital role of communication in everyday life.

The picture simulates an atom blast over Syracuse, N.Y. It is available through inquiry at the nearest office of Canadian General Electric Company, Ltd.

Scouts' Grant Bid May Win Sympathy

Mount Tolmie Boy Scouts representatives, who asked for a grant of $105.79 to take care of municipal taxes on their Shelbourne Street hall, were told Monday night by Saanich council to make their request to the 1952 council. At that time, they were told, they might be given a double grant in view of the lack this year.

No Tax Change Until Spring

Abbott Hints Cigarette Tax May Be Reduced At Next Budget When He Assesses Situation

OTTAWA, Dec. 11 (CP).—Finance Minister Abbott, defending his taxation policies, told the Commons Monday that no tax changes will be made until he brings down the 1952-53 budget in March or April.

He dropped a broad hint that the tax on cigarettes may be reduced then, but as for other taxes he will assess the situation in the spring.

Mr. Abbott spoke after John Diefenbaker (P.C., Lake Centre) called for a vote of non-confidence in the government because of its taxation policies.

"I am quite prepared to stand by the fiscal proposals I made last March," said Mr. Abbott. He wished to deny, he added, that

Says Tobacco Tax 'National Scandal'

Members agreed to extend their sitting hours, starting Wednesday, in an effort to finish their work either this week or early next week. They voted 129 to 26 for the extension after George Drew, Progressive Conservative leader, protested that members could not work on committees and in the Commons at the same time.

In the main debate, Mr. Diefenbaker criticized the government's tobacco tax, increased in the last budget, as a "national scandal" which has decreased revenues in that field and led to smuggling and increased lawlessness in the country.

Mr. Abbott agreed that cigarette consumption has dropped, but said it probably is due partly to the higher tax, partly to the price increase by cigarette manufacturers and partly to an accumulation of inventories prior to the spring budget.

He said, too, that the question of smuggling is "a very important one" and that when a tax is pushed to the point where there is "too great an incentive" to break the law the situation should be "pretty carefully considered."

Mr. Diefenbaker referred to the surplus of $605,000,000 for the first seven months of 1951-52 and recalled that Mr. Abbott had forecast a surplus of only $30,000,000.

Mr. Abbott replied that the budgetary surplus of $605,000,000 does not mean that the government has that much extra cash on hand. Payments over and above the ordinary budgetary expenditures had reduced the surplus to $208,000,000 at Oct. 31.

He indicated he now expects to reap a budgetary surplus of approximately $200,000,000. He mentioned no specific surplus figure, but he did say it now appears that revenues will exceed his forecast of $3,730,000,000 by $9 per cent, or by $300,000,000 to $350,000,000, and that expenditures will exceed his forecast of $3,700,000,000 by 3 or 4 per cent, or $112,000,000 to $148,000,000.

Mr. Abbott said he has been far from alone in underestimating revenues. The governments of the United States and some of the provincial governments had had the same difficulty, and to a greater degree.

PRIZE "GLAD" GROWER

A silver medal and certificate for air shipment gladioli to the Western International Gladiolus Show at Yakima, Wash., was won by Vance Hope, Victoria real estate man, it was learned today. The award was for his Spic and Span and Florence Nightingale varieties.

TEXAN FOLLOWS HIS GUN

Visitors Irked By Laws Don't Always Like B.C.

Daylight saving time and an immigration ban on carrying firearms across the border stumped two American tourists here last summer.

Col. George Paulin, district manager of the Black Ball Ferry Line, told these two stories during a meeting of the tourist trade section of the Chamber of Commerce Monday.

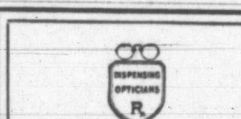

A burly Texan, complete with six-shooter, strode off the ferry from Seattle.

MacMillan Derides Young Artists' Lot

MONTREAL, Dec. 11 (CP).—Sir Ernest MacMillan, conductor of the Toronto Symphony Orchestra, said Monday that efforts to ward a new independence in Canadian music face two weaknesses—young artists have too little chance in Canada and there is a kind of national inferiority leading them to distrust their own judgment.

Sir Ernest, who spoke before the Canadian Club of Montreal, said there are many significant signs, however, pointing to the building of this independence.

"With proper organization we should be able to develop a healthy musical life from the performer's point of view," he said.

Condensed from CP, AP, and UP Dispatches

APOLOGY—In Hollywood the screen's "perfect gentleman," pleaded guilty today to battery and apologized publicly for splitting in the face of gossip columnist Florabelle Muir.

BROTHERS—A Korean war veteran was expected to arrive in San Antonio, Tex., today to give up part of his skin so doctors can cover the burns his twin brother received while fighting on the same front.

Pie—Leona Kijowski, 25, was speeding from the west coast to the bedside of her brother, Pte. Leo S. Kijowski, at Brooke Army Hospital. He was flown from Korea for the operation. Doctors said they believed a skin-graft operation would have a better chance of success if the new tissue came from the wounded twin. They plan to transfer him to the hospital as soon as he arrives here.

ANNIVERSARY—In London, fifteen years ago today the King succeeded to the throne through the abdication of his elder brother, King Edward VIII.

The King spent the anniversary quietly at Buckingham Palace, still convalescing from his operation two months ago for removal of all or part of a lung.

His brother Edward, now the Duke of Windsor, arrived in New York Monday for his annual winter visit to the United States. With him was his American-born Duchess, for whom he gave up his throne.

OPPOSITION—The Canadian destroyer Cayuga has drawn enemy fire from the shores of Red-held Korea for the third time. It has been learned.

The destroyer returned from her most recent patrol action off the west coast to support a U.N. commando party. While anchored in a channel between a friendly island and the Communist shore, Red shore batteries fired at the ship, but Cayuga officers said none of the shells came close enough to worry them.

On two earlier patrols, the Cayuga, commanded by Cmdr. James Plomer, Saint John, N.B., has managed to stir up opposition from Red artillery.

INITIATION—In Hollywood Dorothy Shay initiated six white-haired old ladies into the intricacies of night club hooding—"Park Avenue Hillbilly" style—today and the gals came out panting for more.

They tossed away their canes and kicked and twirled and bumped until their cheeks got pink and their brittle knees gave out.

"This is fun!" gasped Ellen Wickersham, a lively 70. "Maybe we'll get in the movies yet."

ROSY—Two Nova Scotia Liberals and one Ontario Conservative fought an apple war in the Commons Monday.

Julian Ferguson (P.C., Simcoe North) started it by having a big red Simcoe County McIntosh apple on the desk of each M.P. when the sitting of the House started at 2.30 p.m.

Canadian TV Should Be Ready By Fall—Dunton

OTTAWA, Dec. 11 (BUP)—Canadian television set owners could look forward today to three hours daily of home-grown video this fall, but they may have to pay $15 a year for the service.

A. Davidson Dunton, chairman of the CBC board of governors, told the Commons radio committee Monday that the publically-owned corporation expected to start televising to Montreal and Toronto audiences next Summer "at the best," or next fall.

Mr. Dunton announced also that 10 applications for permission to establish private television stations have been filed with the C.B.C. board of governors, but none will be acted upon until late next year.

He said that three applications had been received from Hamilton, Ont., two each from Montreal and Toronto, and one each from Winnipeg, Man., Vancouver-New Westminster, B.C., and Windsor, Ont. Dunton said that the applications would not be dealt with at least until the summer and possibly the autumn of 1952.

He added that there was no hope for a 12 to 15-hour telecasting schedule, and the CBC would go on the air with only about three hours a day—or less.

"We are going to concentrate on quality rather than quantity," Dunton said.

He added the CBC would recommend to the government that video set owners pay $15 annual license fees. A previous estimate had been $10 but he said increased costs had forced an upward revision of the suggested fees.

At the same time, Dunton told the Members of Parliament that the CBC has no plans at the present for color TV.

"Color television in the United States is still in a state of flux," he said. "We cannot plan on color television for the present. We are keeping it in mind, however, that when we can come out with it, we will be able to do so without any great destruction of our existing facilities."

More than half of the CBC's television programs will originate in Montreal and Toronto studios, he said, with the remainder coming from Buffalo, N.Y., which will be hooked up with the two Canadian cities.

The Toronto-Montreal system, Dunton said, is "phase one" in the CBC's television plans. It will cost $5,250,000 in capital expenditure before going on the air next year, and another $2,600,000 to run during the first 12 months of operation.

Dunton estimated that the system would get $285,000 in commercial revenues in its first year of operation. That meant, he said,

"if we were operating on a commercial basis, we would have a deficit of $2,315,000 for the year."

Dunton said the CBC had hoped to start telecasting in September of this year, but its program was set back by material shortages.

"Phase two" of the CBC plans called for conversion of the first phase into a full-blown network extending from Quebec City to Windsor, Ont., he said, plus the setting up of two isolated stations at Winnipeg, Man., and Vancouver, B.C.

The second step would be completed two years after the first phase goes into operation "if funds and materials are available," Dunton said.

In the East, part two will see transmitters at Quebec City, Ottawa and Windsor, plus "dropping off" stations between Quebec City and Montreal, and several more between Toronto and Windsor, at yet unspecified points, Dunton said.

Phase two will cost between $6,500,000 and $7,500,000 to set up, he said, with the two Western stations costing about $1,000,000 each of the total.

Dunton said that Winnipeg and Vancouver would be fed by films shipped from the Eastern Canadian production centres, but added they would have mobile television equipment with which to cover outside sports and other news events, and produce small studio shows.

Bulb Growers Here Lead Canadian Flower Trade

By DON INGRAM

Saanich bulb growers are turning more and more to the flower trade because of the "head start" they have on the rest of Canada.

"Our daffodils and tulips are ready for the cut flower market three weeks ahead of even the B.C. mainland," William Mattick, Cordova Bay grower, said today. "Many of the bulb producers here are taking advantage of this by forcing their own products for the flower trade."

The position here is enhanced by the bulbs themselves, which in many ways are better than the Dutch types.

They mature much earlier, thereby saving on fuel in greenhouses, and also allow for earlier delivery.

Another advantage, appreciated by growers but not the public, is that they have less air space and more substance.

"In our dry climate the bulbs are a little smaller, yet are of the same weight," Mattick said. "As a result, we can get more into one flat. But although the bulbs are just as strong and sturdy as Dutch bulbs, the customers see a big bulb and think it is better than a small one."

The B.C. Bulb Growers' Federation annual meeting held here last week-end illustrated the extent and brilliant outlook of the industry on Vancouver Island and lower mainland.

More than 80 delegates attended and were told that B.C. needs more growers to meet the heavy demand for local bulbs. This year's sales are expected to reach 2,700,000, it was reported.

At present 80 per cent of the 35,000,000 daffodils, tulip and iris bulbs sold in Canada are used for greenhouse forcing. The remainder are sold to the counter trade.

The impact of these facts in the light of experimental evidence indicates a great potential market for B.C.-grown bulbs, according to J. H. Crossley, in charge of bulb experiments at the Saanichton Experimental Farm. "The market is there if B.C. producers will organize to grow, to sell, and to compete with Holland, which is the only serious competitor, he said.

FAMED SKIPPER PASSES

Capt. Wills Master Of Melanope

VANCOUVER, Dec. 11 (CP)—The man who was master of one of the most famous sailing ships on the northwest Pacific coast is dead.

He was Capt. H. K. Wills, 86, a tough, hardbitten skipper of the old school who spent most of his life at sea and from 1900 to 1906 was master of the three-master barque Melanope.

Capt. Wills was master of the Melanope when it made a record passage from Port Townsend, Wash., to Cape Town, South Africa.

When the ship was off Cape Horn, Capt. Wills reproved the man at the wheel for careless steering and the 17-man crew staged a mutiny. The captain had the men thrown in irons and he, his mates, the carpenter, the sailmaker, and two apprentices completed the voyage. In 1906 he was master of the famed ship when it made its last voyage.

En route from Mazatlan, Mexico, to Eureka, Calif., she ran into a howling southeast hurricane and sank.

C. O. Nickle Holds Tory Federal Seat In Calgary

CALGARY, Dec. 11 (CP)—Tradition was upheld Monday when Carl O. Nickle, 37-year-old Progressive Conservative making his political debut, was elected to Parliament in the Calgary West federal by-election.

Calgary West electors have voted Conservative all but once in seven general elections, and three by-elections in the last 26 years. R. B. Bennett, former Conservative prime minister, initiated the trend in 1925 and represented the riding for 14 years. This was the first by-election to be contested.

Mr. Nickle won handily in a three-way fight. When vote-counting ended at 11 p.m. Monday night with 193 of 199 polls reported he had 10,513 votes to 6,280 for Liberal Dr. Frank G. Buchanan, 65-year-old retired school teacher, and 5,279 for Social Credit Arthur J. Dixon, 32-year-old real estate executive. The by-election was made necessary by the resignation of lawyer A. L. Smith, who had held the seat for the Progressive Conservatives since 1945 before ill health enforced his retirement last summer.

In the 1949 general election Mr. Smith polled 11,457 votes to 8,619 for Liberal C. C. Matthews and 6,758 for Mr. Dixon.

Despite ideal weather and road conditions there was a 20-per cent drop in the total vote from 1949. Then, 27,054 of the 38,311 eligible voters—or about 70 per cent—cast ballots. There were 44,901 qualified voters Monday, 35,498 in the city.

Candidates Talk Saanich Policies

Suggested Raise In Council Salaries Rouses No Objection From Audience

Saanich heard its municipal candidates' platforms and policies Monday night.

An intent but conservative crowd of Shelbourne-Mount Tolmie residents heard their stories at Mount Tolmie C.C.F. Hall.

Reeve Joseph Casey, councilors Grace Shaw and E. P. Cummins, whose seats are not in contest, and retiring councillors William C. Kersey and George Austin gave short talks and answered questions.

Main issues discussed were sewers, drainage, sidewalk and playground referendums, road by-laws and public works.

Suggestions that council members receive greater indemnities were well received by the audience.

"They deserve more remuneration for their time," Councillor Austin said.

Here is a summary of the candidates' addresses in order of appearance.

Walter Calwell, police commissioner: "On my record are 36 years of police experience in the city, membership on Greater Victoria transportation committee, and a Dominion of Canada civil defense certificate. I can promise full value for every dollar of the $65,000 that policing of Saanich costs each year.

G. Stanley Eden, council and police commissioner: "In 13 years the police force has grown from four to 19 men, with 24-hour coverage. I am running for both positions because, although the police department has kept abreast of the times, a commissioner on the municipal council might bring both bodies closer together."

David S. L. Peirce, council: "There is criticism of inefficiency in Saanich. Some councillors have told me we do not get full value from our municipal employees. I feel I can help the situation. Employees have nothing to fear from me, but I will expect fair results for money paid."

Henry G. Robinson, council: "I want to know why Saanich sewer bonds will not provide the money required, and I am against referendums for playgrounds and sidewalks. They could be paid for out of surplus. I am not against their leadership."

Chad Smith, council: "As a war disability pensioner I have time to attend fully to the duties of office. I am independent, can promise unbiased judgment on all matters, and will deal with the municipality as a whole without favoring any particular section."

Roy Wootton, council: "I want to know what happened to our sewer by-law, with close to $4,000,000 pledged, and we haven't even dug a hole. I also want to know why the ambulance we bought by public subscription during the war is now standing on blocks in the municipal yard. They say it cost $174 per year to run, yet the municipality pays more than that now for ambulance charges."

Councillor H. K. "Pat" Bate, Bate, council: "Interest rates on our sewer bonds were set prior to Finance Minister Abbott's budget that discouraged that kind of spending. To obtain the value we wanted we should pay a rate of 4.7 per cent instead of the 3.5 to 4.0 we now pay. No one knew the contents of the budget—including us."

(Reeve Joseph W. Casey remarked later that, considering the interest rates and prices bid for the sewer bonds, the municipality will pay an actual rate of about 4.7 per cent.)

Councillor L. H. Passmore, council: "The sewer project will go through for the price we said and the rates planned, assuming that the picture tomorrow is the same as today. We did this by giving up plans to build for larger expansion, and confining ourselves to the present sewer area. We also did not approve of tenders which did not indicate knowledge of the rock tunnels we planned originally."

HOW TO WIN THE PRIZE

before the race is run!

Watch Jimmy go!

He's mighty fleet on his feet. And you can just bet that he'll win first prize in this race.

Some day Jimmy will grow up. He'll have a job. And he'll get married. Then he'll discover that one of the prizes he wants most to win is financial security for his family. But he'll be able to win this prize "before the race is run"—with life insurance.

For you see, the full protection of life insurance begins the moment you make your first premium payment and the premiums that you set aside regularly can, if you so desire, help you win some of the "prizes" that savings provide—such as a college education for the youngsters, a travel treat or a new home!

Nowadays the savings you can make with life insurance are more important than ever. For, like all savings, they help to check inflation. And, because they are long term savings, their inflation-checking power is all the greater.

So keep up your premium payments. Add new life insurance as you need it. And save money every way you can!

Life insurance dollars serve you these other ways!

Did you know that a large part of every life insurance dollar is put to work in investments that bring you—and all other Canadians—extra benefits?

Each year, hundreds of millions of these dollars are used in this way to help provide some of the nation's most important industries and public works. Result: new schools, highways, power plants, oil pipelines, industrial plants, home-building projects and many other vital services that help raise living standards.

Today, nearly five million thrifty Canadians are co-operating to provide security for their families . . . working to check inflation . . . and promoting national prosperity . . . by paying premiums regularly on their life insurance policies.

Ten Thousand Reasons

WHY THE B OF M IS... "MY BANK"

They are the ten thousand members of the B of M family serving well over a million and a half fellow-Canadians in towns and villages, pioneer settlements and large cities, across the country.

"... The past year has been one of great activity in all departments of the Bank," said Gordon R. Ball, General Manager, in his report to shareholders of the Bank of Montreal. "I cannot find words to express adequately my appreciation of the services rendered by our staff at all levels, both in meeting these problems and in carrying on the day-to-day task of providing constantly expanding services at a high level of efficiency."

Dollars and cents do not make the bank. A bank's success is built on the quality of its services to all its customers. And such quality is wholly dependent on the enthusiasm and efficiency of the men and women who make up the staff.

Half-Day Closing Here Costs Thousands, Claim

Two top city transportation officials said Monday that half-day Wednesday closure of city stores is losing Victoria many thousands of tourist dollars each year.

Speaking at a luncheon meeting of the tourist trade group of the Victoria Chamber of Commerce, Capt. O. J. Williams, manager of the C.P.R.'s B.C. Coast

Steamship Service, and George Paulin, manager of the Black Ball Ferry Line's Victoria office, cited the closure as a major tourist problem.

Capt. Williams, who told the meeting that 1951 is the peak year for the C.P.R.'s coast service, said "you're no idea of the business you're losing" by the closure and added it was a "source of annoyance" to many visitors.

He praised the condition of B.C. roads but thought that too many tourists, uninformed about Island attractions, were passing through Victoria to catch the Naime boat to the mainland. The C.P.R. man said the steamship service will have handled 1,500,000 passengers and 157,000 automobiles by the end of the year. In the peak traffic period—mid-June to shortly after Labor Day—700,000 persons and 70,000 cars used C.P.R. transportation facilities.

IMPROVEMENTS SUGGESTED
He thought that improved city beaches, increased advertising of Victoria's attractions and better restaurant facilities here would increase tourist traffic to the Island.

Mr. Paulin echoed Capt. Williams' criticism of early Wednesday closing and suggested that city stores should stagger their half-day closing hours throughout the week.

"It is a plan that is carried out by other Canadian cities (Toronto)," he said, and "a tremendous saving in revenue to the city."

He said the tourist business is undergoing important and rapid changes and Victoria must look to its laurels if it wants to capture the lion's share of tourist dollars in B.C. Mr. Paulin said the Black Ball Line carried close to 55,000 cars in 1951, a figure that did not include foot-passengers. He estimated about 150,000 passengers arrived by car.

SURPRISE NO WORD FOR IT

PORT RILEY, Kas., Dec. 11 (CP)—Capt. George Epsom, a provost marshal, went to Topeka to pick up a soldier who was absent without leave.

Learning the man wouldn't be home for several hours, the captain decided to kill time in a movie.

When he returned to the house to get the soldier, both he and his prisoner got a surprise.

They had been sitting next to each other during the movie.

C. Of C. Lauds Government On Anti-Inflation

OTTAWA, Dec. 11 (CP)—A 10-man Canadian Chamber of Commerce delegation conferred with Prime Minister St. Laurent and the cabinet Monday and in a brief urged the government to consider "the vital necessity of thrift in its own operations."

In a 64-page policy submission—the longest ever drawn up by the chamber—the government was commended for its anti-inflationary policies, but the chamber observed that the need for saving may have become overshadowed by higher revenues.

"There is a real danger that against a background of buoyant revenues resulting in part from high taxation, but in part also from the inflation which has already taken place, the necessity of strict curtailment of non-essential expenditures may be obscured."

"The accomplishments in governmental economy to date seem hardly consistent with the increased burden of taxation which the public has shouldered."

The brief was presented by R. B. Perrault of Montreal, C.C.C. president, who said later in an interview that Mr. St. Laurent had promised to give the C.C.C. brief consideration.

Hooky-Playing Boy Kills Mother, Burns Her Body

OAKLAND, Calif., Dec. 11 (UP)—A 15-year-old boy who dreamed of "violence against his parents" months ago, admitted to day that he killed his mother with a hatchet then set fire to her body because "she bawled me out for playing hooky."

Samuel Hutchins, an Oakland high school sophomore, surrendered quietly Monday when an undersheriff spotted his car parked before the Grass Valley, Calif., high school.

Earlier, the youth had escaped from pursuing officers in a high speed chase over back roads in the Sierra Nevada foothills.

The youth offered no resistance. He had a .45 calibre automatic with him.

His victim was Mrs. Evelyn Hutchins, 51, the wife of Ralph W. Hutchins, 58. Firemen called to extinguish a minor blaze in the basement of the Hutchins home found her charred body.

A coroner's report showed her skull had been split and battered by at least a dozen blows from a small hand axe found near the body.

"She bawled me out for not going to school and for breaking my promise not to play hooky any more," Samuel told police. "I blew my top and hit her with the axe while she was facing me. She didn't say anything, just fell to the floor. Then I hit her some more—I don't know how many times."

Samuel said he then went upstairs, changed his clothes, took $45 from his mother's purse and the .45 pistol from his father's den. Then he returned to the basement.

"She had a bundle of papers under her arms, and I took them and covered her with them and poured paint thinner over them. Then I set fire to them."

"I figured that way she would not be found."

Samuel said he then backed the family Cadillac out of the garage and left.

"Things aren't clear after that," he said. "I just wanted to get away from Oakland."

Butter Stocks Show Increase

OTTAWA, Dec. 11 (CP)—Production and stocks of creamery butter increased during November while margarine declined, according to reports issued Monday by the Bureau of Statistics.

Creamery butter production during the month amounted to 13,828,000 pounds compared with 13,335,000 in the corresponding month last year. In the first 11 months this year, production totalled 247,947,000 pounds against 252,090,000 in 1950.

Stocks of creamery butter at Dec. 1 amounted to 57,774,000 pounds, compared with 66,058,000 at Nov. 1 and 52,835,000 on Dec. 1, 1950.

IT'S MY VIEW

By BILL WALKER, Sports Editor

The three-act drama punctuated with cries of "Gwan Davis, you're lousy!" that echoed across Memorial Arena Saturday night as the Cougars beat the Canucks in everything but the final score was outrageously overplayed.

For referees, a necessary item in hockey, never beat you, not 99 per cent of the time at any rate.

Hockey is a game of physical contact. It shouldn't be allowed to become overly rough or dangerously out of hand. And it is the duty of the officials to use the rules with the rules which they are provided to prevent this.

Some referees have the happy faculty of being able to abide by these rules and by doing so, keep the game, the players, and above all—here at any rate—the fans, under control.

Davis does not have this capacity especially when the Cougars are getting their lumps. Perhaps one reason is that he calls the rules differently from other arbiters in the league. At least the three league officials are not consistent in their rule interpretations. That much is plain even to the unpractised eye.

But the officials are only human, too. Just as human as the fans and players. They will make mistakes. Those mistakes will hurt the home team at times and naturally will rile the customers to acts of violence.

Sure, Davis missed a lot in that game Saturday. Eddie Dorohoy got a mouthful of frozen brine when dumped at centre ice with Davis watching the play. Ernie Roche got upset another time when a penalty seemed the obvious answer. Perhaps Davis did not see those plays as did the fans. Perhaps he is not the best official in the league. But perhaps, too, the fans and players make mistakes.

Even The Players Forget The Rules

For example: When Vancouver had two men in the penalty box Saturday they were playing one man short as the P.C.H.L. rule applies. But when both those penalties were up, one Vancouver player stepped on the ice bringing the Canucks to full strength.

The fans yowled. The Cougars slapped the boards with their hands. Coach Roger Leger screamed from the penalty box where he was imprisoned. Eddie Dorohoy went into intense gyrations on the ice. Meantime Ray Manson scored a goal for the Canucks. That goal counted though the argument continued.

This time the fans were wrong. Coach Roger Leger was in error. Eddie Dorohoy had done his Indian dance for nothing. Davis and the penalty box crew were right.

But did Davis pick up a hockey stick and throw it at the fans as they were later to do to him with cushions, programs, chairs... and a "dead duck." He did not, though he had as much right to retaliate as the fans did when they took matters in their own hands.

Then later, in that same game, the penalty timekeeper let Cougars' Bob Frampton on the ice a full 37 seconds before his penalty was served. He made a mistake. But did the fans throw cushions at him? They did not.

Maybe The Refs Should Hold A Meeting

Why then should the referee be allowed to be the sole recipient of all those gifts from the fans. Well, simply because that's his job. He is paid to officiate at the game and the abuse goes hand in hand with his pay cheque.

Don't think for a minute that we're condoning Davis for the ones he missed. He missed plenty but so did we, and so did the fans, and so did the Cougars.

And Davis despite his faults didn't beat the Cougars. The Canucks did. And they'll do it again if the Cougars miss as many scoring opportunities as they had Saturday night and the Canucks keep on skating as they did that same Saturday night.

Referees may be a necessary evil, but think what would happen if there were no referees.

Or as Eddie Dorohoy said after the game, "I know we gotta have those guys on the ice, but I wish they'd be consistent with one another. Davis lets one thing go. Eddie Powers calls it. That's the only beef I got."

The dead duck only served to illustrate the Cougars' position. The odor, if any, belonged to whence the duck was discharged.

WANTS TO RESIGN, BUT...

Doug Not Through Yet

By BILL HOLLAND

Fate may keep Doug Fletcher from resigning as president of the Victoria Minor Hockey Association.

Monday night, a meeting of the association was called to be held at the Memorial Arena and at this meeting Fletcher had intended to officially tender his resignation because he had taken up poultry farming. Unfortunately, the meeting had to be canceled because veep Ivan Temple and Ed Kelpin didn't show up.

Before everybody went home to listen to the radio for the evening, a few words were tossed around to the effect that Fletcher would be missed if he were to retire.

For awhile it looked like Fletcher was going to weaken under the compliments that were flying around the room.

Well, anyway, there's another meeting called for Wednesday, and if Fletcher's chickens don't lay too many eggs in the meantime, something interesting might develop.

Bowling Meet Billed

Capital City Bowladrome will be the scene of a Christmas five-pin bowling tournament Dec. 22 to Jan. 5; it has been announced by alley manager Phil Smith.

Cash prizes (one for every five entries) plus trophies will be awarded. Fifteen merchandise prizes have already been pledged for ladies' and men's high single and triples, "A" and "B" all events and hidden scores.

Events follow:

"A" teams, 1,000 and over (scratch 1,250).

"B" teams, under 1,000.

"A" singles, 200 and over (scratch 250).

"B" singles, under 200.

"A" doubles, 420 and over (scratch 500).

"B" doubles, under 420.

Entries close Dec. 17.

Warren Cunningham, Bill Kirby, Curly Leachman, Don Donahue and Adamus scored for Victoria while Jack Milburn notched both Nanaimo goals.

In the opening contest, Victoria Midgets downed Nanaimo Midgets, 12-0. Glen Lockhart, Bryan Turnbull, Steve Foster and Bill Dawson each scored twice for the locals while lone scorers were Ron Youell, Allan Taylor, Brian Erb and Harvey Gillis.

Victoria Minor Hockey Association juvenile all-stars held a hot welcome for the Nanaimo All-Stars at the Memorial Arena Monday. The welcome was a little something arranged to repay the up-liners for courtesy towards the Victorians at Nanaimo last week.

Nanaimo All-Stars were repaid in full as the locals handed them a 5-2 defeat and bit of fistic action as a sidelight.

The fight occurred when Gerry Adams of Victoria was tripped and had to be taken to hospital for a back injury.

Wings' Balance Shown In N.H.L. Statistics

MONTREAL, Dec. 11 (CP).

Detroit Red Wings are currently being comfortably ensconced atop the National Hockey League but you'd never know it from a look at the individual statistics.

Gordie Howe, first Red Wing to show in the statistics, is in fifth place and the second highest is Ted Lindsay who is tied for 10th.

Sid Abel is right behind Lindsay but there's another big gap before you hit the next Red Wing.

Be that as it may, the Wings have counted 67 times this year, five more than the runner-up Leafs. They've also had the least goals scored against them and that combination leaves them where they are today.

Ted Kennedy of Toronto Maple Leafs paces the pack with 25 points, made up of 10 goals and 15 assists. Montreal Canadiens' Elmer Lach is two points off the pace with six goals and 18 assists, tops in that department for the year.

Tied for third spot are Canadiens' Maurice Richard and Toronto's Sid Smith with 23 points apiece.

MOSENIKO THREAT

Chicago's Bill Mosenko is one point behind Howe after gathering the highest number of points in a single game last Dec. 2. Mosenko's two goals and three assists in that game brought his point total to 20, one less than Howe. Tied with the Chicagoan is New York's Don Raleigh.

Terry Sawchuk, Detroit goaltender, racked up his fifth shut-out last week and has the best goals-against average. In 25 games, he let 44 pucks past him for a 1.76 average, compared to 1.92 for Toronto's Al Rollins.

TEEDER COMES INTO OWN, HAS POINT-A-GAME MARK

TORONTO, Dec. 11 (CP).—The new National Hockey League pace setter, Ted (Teeder) Kennedy of Toronto Maple Leafs, is regarded as the most underrated player in the league everywhere except in Toronto.

"I don't underrate him," snorts Connie Smythe, the Leafs' dynamic general manager. "He's the greatest player in hockey. You can have your Richards, Howes, Schmidts and Abels. I'll take Kennedy."

Kennedy, in his ninth year as a big leaguer, will be 26 years old Wednesday and has much to celebrate. Not the least was the fact that his consistent scoring endeavors had brought him to the top of the pack individually with 26 points in as many games.

Never picked to the first all-star team, this rugged competitor is finally coming into his own as the top centre in the game, if only because age was catching up with his chief opponents—namely, Milt Schmidt, Elmer Lach, Max Bentley, Edgar LaPrade and Sid Abel, all of whom are in their 30's.

ELDER STATESMAN SPEAKS

Federal Bookie Tax Rather Silly—Baruch

By TIM MORIARTY

NEW YORK, Dec. 11 (UP).—Barnard Baruch took time out from his duties as America's elder statesman Monday to diagnose the ills that have beset the sports world.

The 81-year-old financier, turf enthusiast and adviser to presidents concluded that:

1. The new federal tax on bookies is "rather silly" because "you can't stop people from gambling."

2. The college basketball scandals must be blamed on "those young athletes who never learned the value of moral integrity."

3. The recruiting of college football players should be banned before it ruins the sport completely.

Commenting on the bribery stories that have rocked college basketball, Baruch said it was obvious that the involved players never learned to play the game fair and square.

"If they were taught the values of good sportsmanship, they would have been able to resist the temptations of accepting tainted money," Baruch said.

"But, then, that's the trouble with the world today... politically, economically, nationally and internationally. People haven't learned to play the game fair and square."

Regarding the overemphasis in college football, Baruch pointed out that "here, too, you find a lack of fair play."

"It's against all the rules of decency to recruit an athlete, and yet it's become a common practise at most schools. It should be banned."

Baruch, an accomplished horseman and a follower of racing all his life, thinks the new federal bookie tax will solve nothing.

PERSONAL INITIATIVE

"You can't stop people from gambling on horses. And why should you prohibit a man from backing his own judgment? It's another form of personal initiative," he said.

As a former first baseman during his college days at City College of New York, Baruch has maintained his interest in baseball down through the years.

Asked who was the greatest hitter he ever saw, Baruch conceded that Babe Ruth, Joe DiMaggio and Ted Williams were in a class by themselves.

"As a Yankee fan, that Williams fellow makes me tremble every time he steps up to the plate," Baruch said. "He's so destructive."

Defend Brooches

Mrs. Margaret Todd and Miss Marjorie Todd successfully defended their city women's golf brooches by downing Miss Dorothy Herbertson and Mrs. Shirley Fry 4 and 3 at the Victoria Golf Club Sunday.

PROVIDENCE, R.I.—Robert Villanai, 18½, France, outpointed Jimmy Cerebo, 18½, Hoboken, N.J. (18).

Bell Closing Gap On Ollie Dorohoy

Ed Dorohoy Third In Point Race

SEATTLE, Dec. 11 (AP).

New Westminster is still the top team in the Pacific Coast Hockey League, and Ollie Dorohoy—prize puck-chaser who had much to do with the Royals' first-place rating—continues to lead the circuit's scoring race.

Official records for games through last Sunday released today place the Royals in first place with 42 points for the season, five more than second-place Seattle.

Dorohoy is out in front in scoring with 41 points, but he's closely threatened by Seattle's Joe Bell who has one less. Eddie Dorohoy of Victoria, Ollie's brother, and Doug Adam of Tacoma are tied in third place with 34 points each.

Bell took over goal-scoring honors last week with 22 while Danny Sprout, Seattle defenseman, moved into a tie with teammate Rudy Fillion for the most assists; each has 25.

New Westminster's Lucien Dechene remained the leading goalie with an average of 2.58 goals against per game.

Coleman's Column

By JIM COLEMAN

Fellow sent us a note the other day to say that Pete Suttie was dead. It was no surprise to learn that Pete had died, broke because Suttie was a gambler man and there were only two ways that he could wind up—broke or stone rich. Pete's eventual fate was predestined, too, because he was sentimental and a gambler should have no more sentimentality than a piece of apple-pie dandy. A gambler who follows the dictates of his heart is strictly an even-money bet to take the gas.

Pete Suttie probably will be remembered as a poor gambler. He didn't qualify for a very high rating in the never-give-the-sucker-an-even-break department. He was too soft and he'd never slam it to a man when he had him hanging on the ropes. Out of his hearing, he was considered to be something of a dope.

Pete knew horses, though. A friend of his who was associated with him in the horse business some years back could have given you the tip-off on Pete and his gambling.

It seems that Suttie once had a horse named Gondolier, Pete won Gondolier on the toss of a coin down in Kentucky when the colt was only a weanling. To tell the truth, Gondolier, at that stage, looked like nothing so much as a sack full of moose antlers but he was an affectionate little fellow and Suttie, who had a small farm at the time, decided to keep him as a pet.

A Little Colt With A Great Heart

The following year, Suttie blew the farm in a crap game but he shipped a couple of platers—C.O.D. to Juarez. He took along Gondolier who, by this time, was a yearling and was beginning to show signs of having a bit of lick. He had lumps and bumps all over him but he could run.

Gondolier really was a cripple all his life but he had that touch of quality known as "class." He had a heart as big as a pumpkin and when the man said "Come On" Gondolier would pump those knobby old legs of his and he beat many better horses simply because he out-gamed them.

Suttie loved his old-horse so much that he had him insured for $10,000 which was almost an unheard-of sum for a racer in those days and, particularly, around the tracks where Gondolier performed.

Pete was sitting in a stud game in a downtown hotel one night and his luck had been running thin. To tell the truth, he was broke and he owed Nick The Greek $8,000.

The End Of A Strange Friendship

The phone rang and it was a groom from the track demanding to speak to Suttie. Old Gondolier was very sick—it looked as if he was going to peg out unless something was done for him quickly. "Get a vet—I'll be right there," said Pete and he hustled out, leaving his marker for the $8,000.

When he reached the track, they had Gondolier lying on a patch of green grass behind one of the barns. A young vet was there and the lights of the vet's car were shining on the horse.

"How bad is he, Doc?" he asked.

"He's a goner," replied the young vet, who had a needle in his hand.

"He is in terrible pain but I understand he is insured for $10,000 and he can't be destroyed by any one other than the insurance company's veterinarian or you don't get the dough."

"Get him," said Suttie and the young vet drove away to telephone.

"He can't be here for an hour," said the young vet.

It Was The Easy Way Out—For Him

Suttie climbed back in the car and sat there for a few seconds. Perhaps he thought of the first time he saw Gondolier and perhaps he thought of the time that Gondolier won the San Philippe on the green-topped table back at the hotel—but I doubt that.

"An hour, you say?" he asked the young vet, averting his eyes from the old horse lying in the glare of the car lights.

The young vet nodded his head.

"Put him away now," said Suttie harshly and he put his car into reverse and drove down the road because he didn't want to look.

That's why Pete Suttie was a poor gambler. He had $10,000 lying on the table and he didn't even bother to draw a card.

MACDONALD'S WIN

Arrows Dehorn Moose

Moose Ramblers went down to a 38-24 defeat at the hands of Arrow Furniture in a women's exhibition contest at Vic High Monday night.

In the centre spot on the night's three-game card, MacDonald's senior B women downed C & C Taxi intermediate B girls 54-24. The opener saw Eagletles junior girls hand St. Louis College midget boys a 23-20 drubbing.

DiMag May Get TV Job

Yankee Position Open; Stanky Reports To Cards

NEW YORK, Dec. 11 (AP).—Eddie Stanky is due to sign a two-year contract as player-manager of the St. Louis Cardinals today and Joe DiMaggio will announce his future plans.

The Stanky and DiMaggio developments probably will overshadow the seven-club deal completed last night between the Cincinnati Reds and Philadelphia Phils.

In the only official swap of the winter meetings, Cincinnati sent pitcher Howie Fox (9-14), second baseman Connie Ryan (234) and catcher Forrest Burgess (257) to the Phils for catcher Andy Seminick (223), outfielder Dick Sisler (287), pitcher Niles Jordan (23) and infielder Eddie Pellagrini (234).

Stanky's deal to St. Louis for pitcher Max Lanier (11-9) and outfielder Chuck Diering (.259) hinges on an agreement between the peppy little second baseman and Fred Saigh, Card owner. That is a foregone conclusion.

Saigh and Stanky talked on the phone last night and will compromise on a two-year contract at $37,500 when Eddie flies into St. Louis today to meet his new boss.

Although the Giants and Cards didn't announce the players involved in the Stanky deal, it was learned Lanier and Diering are the men. Lanier, 36-year-old lefty, would bolster the Giant staff and Diering, a good-field, no-hit centre fielder, will provide centre field insurance in case Willie Mays is drafted.

The DiMaggio announcement will settle the future of the 37-year-old star with the $100,000 salary. Joe told reporters after the world series he had played his last game but held off positive retirement at the request of the Yankees' owners.

Since Dizzy Dean left the Yankees to take another job, the television job is open. There are strong reports DiMaggio will man the TV-Mike at Yankee Stadium for the next three years at $50,000 per.

The Cincinnati-Phillies deal helps both clubs where they need it most.

Manager Eddie Sawyer counts on Ryan, 31-year-old veteran, as his regular second baseman. He played with New York and Boston before he was traded to the Reds for Walker Cooper in May of 1950. Sawyer also gets a regular starting pitcher in Fox, 30, a right-hander who may benefit by a change in scenery. Burgess is a young catcher, 24, who came to the Reds from Chicago in a four-man deal after the season.

Sailors Down Chilliwack

Navy edged Chilliwack Army 21 Saturday to gain possession of the Tri-Service Soccer Trophy.

The winning goal in the dying minutes of the contest. Navy drew first blood on a goal by Charlie Forrester early in the first stanza. Capt. Tye of Army scored the tying marker just before the half.

BOWLING SOCIAL

Britannia Branch Canadian Legion bowlers will hold a social in the Blanshard Street bowling alley, Wednesday night at 8.

Seven Ups Dominate Commercial Point Race

As Seven-Ups continue to walk away from the rest of the Commercial Hockey League, so do members of the team continue to dominate individual statistical departments according to latest official figures.

Mike Leachman's bottlers have not been out of first place in the last month and a half. This fact does not seem so miraculous when you consider that their first string line is one-two-three in the individual scoring and that their goal is in a first-place tie for net-minders' averages.

In the points department, there is little change in position, only in degree. Ed Varga picked up three goals in Seven-Ups' last game to retain his first-place lead over line-mates Norm LaCree and Ron Bremner. Varga is tops in goals with 14 and second in assists with nine for a total of 23 points. LaCree has 10 of each for 20 points while Bremner has 13 points for third place. Army's Cy Vary moved into a third-place tie with Bremner last week.

Top spot in the goalie's derby goes to Seven-Ups' Phil Bremner and Merchants' Ab Ellis, both sporting 3.00 goal-against averages.

Fear Piggery Firebug Back

VANCOUVER, Dec. 11 (CP)—The provincial fire marshal's office has warned farmers that a firebug who designs in burning piggeries "has probably returned to the lower mainland." The warning followed inspection of the ruins of a new pigery at Ladner Saturday. More than 500 pigs and 1,500 chicks were lost in the $50,000 fire. "It looks like the work of a mystery man who caused thousands of dollars damage in an epidemic of piggery fires in the summer of 1949," assistant fire marshal Robert J. Holliday said.

Devilish Plan

When Evelyn Keyes sees the gun held by her husband, Van Heflin, in this suspense-packed scene from S. P. Eagle's "The Prowler," she realizes he has a devilish plan in his mind. United Artist's is releasing this unusual melodrama, now showing at the Plaza Theatre, as adult entertainment only.

Tallulah's Maid States She Will Tell Court All

NEW YORK, Dec. 11 (UP)—Tallulah Bankhead's discharged personal maid threatened today to tell an all-male jury about exotic parties far spicier than the actress' recent Broadway hit, "Private Lives."

Mrs. Evelyn Ramsey Cronin, 59, accused by Miss Bankhead of raising her expense cheques, was the defendant in a courtroom drama but the way the plot was unfolding she had only a bit part. The spotlight really was on Tallulah, who came to general sessions court Monday in a pink coat to witness the selection of jurors. She tugged nervously at her clothing and refused to smile for photographers.

Mrs. Cronin's lawyer advised the jury it could expect to hear a "dirty, filthy case."

A jury of 12 men and two male alternates came to general sessions court to hear the opening statements of state and defense in Mrs. Cronin's 32-count larceny and forgery trial.

Tallulah, who was named after a waterfall and has spent nearly half a century imitating a tornado, was to take the stand as a state witness late today or Wednesday morning, depending on the trial's progress.

Mrs. Cronin, formerly the stage and radio star's secretary and personal maid, was charged with stealing $4,284.60 between Oct. 8, 1948, and April 11, 1950, by raising the amounts of cheques which Miss Bankhead signed for "incidental expenses."

Miss Bankhead and her attorney, Donald R. Seawell, said they believed the amount was more like $20,000 altogether.

At Mrs. Cronin's arraignment, her attorney said the cheques for incidental expenses were "used to pay for cocaine, marihuana, liquor, booze, whisky, champagne, and sex."

Tallulah later retorted that her life was an open book, that everyone knew she took a drink, that on her honor "as a Bankhead from Alabama" she didn't touch narcotics, and:

"I don't know what that lawyer means by 'sex'. I don't have to buy sex. I haven't slipped that far."

IN HOLLYWOOD

New Personalities Mostly Found Right In Movietown

By BOB THOMAS
 HOLLYWOOD, Dec. 11 (AP)—Everybody talks about the need for new faces in the movies, but few studios do much about it. A notable exception is Universal-International. In the last year or so the studio has developed new personalities in a number disproportionate to the size of its operation. Among the promising newcomers: Peggy Dow, Tony Curtis, Piper Laurie, Joyce Holden, Rock Hudson. For information I went to the talent coach Sophie Rosenstein, who has spent most of her career developing other people's talents. How does the studio find promising young talent? "Mostly through agents who bring the talent to the studio. Most of the boys and girls have been found in little theatres around Hollywood, which is our principal showcase of talent. Only a few are brought in from Broadway and other parts of the country."

HARD TRAINING
 How are the youngsters chosen for contracts? "We try to pick ones who have the 'potentiality' of being able to do leading roles, since we generally don't put character types under contract. The person should be pleasant-looking and should be assured and self-confident. Previous training is not necessary, but it helps. If a person has taken part in school plays and so forth, that at least shows he has some of the drive and the desire to be an actor."

After the hopefuls are on the contract list they begin extensive training. "There is no sitting at home, waiting to be called for a picture," Miss Rosenstein remarked. "They put in a full day at the studio. We give them singing and dancing lessons, teach them how to ride horseback and train them in all phases of acting. They are taught to improvise and to think on their feet; that makes them self-confident and assured."

Beer Belt Busy Once Again

Output of beer in Victoria was back at full pitch today, second day of production since settlement of brewery strike. Picture shows section of Phoenix plant where bottles are labeled, jacked and cased. One hundred and thirty bottles are handled every minute. While many citizens are pleased that beer is once again obtainable, there is concern that price may be increased.

TOPICS OF THE TIMES

An estate totaling $66,455 was left by Albert James Maynard, well-known Victoria auctioneer, who died here on Oct. 5, 1951. The bulk of the estate was bequeathed to his widow, Mrs. Amy Ruth Maynard.

The will, probated in Supreme Court today, also provides that under an agreement between the deceased and Arthur D. Roberts, Mrs. Maynard is to receive monthly payments of $125 for life or until a total of $25,000 is paid out.

A husky, 300-pound gentleman called "Smith 3F," has recently taken up residence at the farm of James Turner, Sayward Road. He is a purebred Suffolk ram, bought by Turner for $750 at the Royal Winter Fair, Toronto, where he had won the grand champion of breed award.

Tickets for Christmas parties at H.M.C.S. Naden must be picked up by Wednesday, according to naval officials. Dependents of Korean personnel obtain tickets at the Belmont Building recruiting office, and those of Naden personnel at John Stubbs Memorial School or Building 50, H.M.C. Dockyard. All parties will start at 2 in the afternoon.

M. J. Foley, executive vice-president of Powell River Company, will officiate Thursday at a keel-laying ceremony at Yarrow's shipyard. Foley will set in place the first plate of a tug to be built for Kingcome Navigation Company, marine subsidiary of the Powell River firm. The tug will be 100 feet long and will cost in the neighborhood of $350,000. Construction program calls for launching in March and delivery in May.

Two persons injured in accidents last week are reported in "good" condition at Jubilee Hospital today.

They are Joseph C. Donald, Vancouver, passenger on a car that crashed into a guard-rail on the Island Highway's Millstream hill, and Carol Southern, 7, of 3217 Alder, who was in collision with a car.

Hot ashes placed in a container were blamed for a fire that damaged the back porch and a wall at 5 Boyd Street at 4:12 this morning, city firemen report.

Tickets for the Victoria Theatre Guild's "The Heiress," to open Saturday at Langham Court Theatre, will be on sale Dec. 13 at Fletcher's. Members may exchange tickets tonight and Wednesday between 7 and 10 in the theatre foyer.

Mrs. Alma Evelyn Nute, 3608 Douglas, was awarded a total of $811 by Judge H. H. Shandley in County Court today in a damage suit against P.O. Nicholas Draginda, R.C.N., now of Halifax. Mrs. Nute, represented by J. A. Byers, claimed damages for injuries sustained when knocked down by the defendant in the Memorial Arena last March. She broke her arm.

Annual Christmas tree party for children of members of the Esquimalt Branch of the Canadian Legion will be held December 15 in the Admirals Road Hall. Esquimalt orphans and widows' children are being invited to the party, which will start at 2:30 in the afternoon.

Esquimalt council Monday night approved a $310 bill for a report on the construction of a Colville Road sewer.

Of that amount, $260 will be paid consulting engineer A. S. G. Musgrave, of Oak Bay, municipality. In his report to councilors, Musgrave estimated cost of the sewer at $2,746.

MORE MONEY, LESS BEER

Bonus Greets Strikers On Return To Breweries

A Christmas bonus was provided all workers at Victoria Phoenix Brewery when they returned to the plant Monday after a seven weeks' strike. The bonus, in practically all cases, amounted to about one week's pay.

At the same time, employees were notified of a change in regulations governing the amount of beer they could drink during their work day. Before the strike, one worker explained, workers could if they wanted, have two glasses of beer at 10, noon, 3 and 5. Now, they will be allowed beer at noon and 5 only.

They will still be allowed a mid-morning and mid-afternoon break for a smoke. "The change isn't so bad," one worker conceded. "A lot of the fellows who work here don't drink anyway."

Country Road Urged Track For Hot Rods

The "heavy-footed" youngsters in Victoria would be safe drivers if they had the opportunity to drive at full tilt once in a while.

This argument was presented to Saanich Council Monday night by a delegation from the Vancouver Island Track Roadster Association in a request to use a portion of Finnerly Road for time trials once a month.

"These youngsters want speed," one of the spokesmen said. "We can control them on the streets and highways if they have the chance to 'blow off steam' once in a while. Although the council was not optimistic, it promised to get legal advice, and offered suggestions of sites for dirt tracks.

CALL GOES OUT FOR VOTERS TO SET NEW CIVIC RECORD

Wanted: 12,500 voters on Thursday. This was the call of Stuart Keate, publisher of The Victoria Daily Times, chairman of Monday night's city-sponsored all-candidates rally in Britannia Branch of the Legion.

"If 12,500 voters go to the polls on Thursday it will be a new record for civic government," said Keate. "It will only be 60 per cent. of the eligible voters but it will still be an all-time record." He drew the audience's attention to two statistics which appeared Monday in The Times... the fact that 17,000 sets of ballots had been printed and that there were 19,600 names on the voters' list.

"If everyone voted, 17,000 ballots would not be enough," he said.

Law For Laymen One Of Courses College Offering Night Classes

Eight new courses, from study of Vancouver Island birds to business law for laymen, were approved by Victoria College Council Monday night, for the spring session of the evening division.

Announcement of the courses, which will carry through from January to April, was made today by the council, of which J. B. Clearhue, K.C., is chairman. Variety is the keynote. Courses are designed to interest people seeking information on such diversified subjects as abnormal psychology and the nine symphonies of Beethoven.

C. J. Guiguet, provincial museum biologist, will deal with appearance, behavior and habitat of the birds of Vancouver Island, with special emphasis on birds seen in this area. Course starts Jan. 10. Class will meet in the museum so that the scientific collection of 10,000 bird skins will be available for use.

"Our Heritage" is the subject of a course starting Jan. 9, by Willard Ireland, provincial archivist, in which he will sketch

SELL-OUT SHOW

Symphony Last Ticket Fan's Prize

The 1,000th symphony-goer to purchase tickets this season is Mrs. Norah Bellman, 1526 Pandora.

She will be rewarded with a free ticket to the Victoria Symphony Orchestra concert tonight at 8:30 at the Royal Victoria Theatre.

The concert will highlight appearance of four featured musicians, including Hans Stelzner, well-known French horn player recently arrived here from Germany.

He will take the solo part in Mozart's Concerto in E Flat. The trio featured in Beethoven's concerto for piano, "cello, violin and orchestra in C Major, Opus 56, will be Charles Palmer, Mary Hammond and concert master Clifford Evans.

Late-comers wanting tickets for tonight's concert, however, will be disappointed. The last seat has long since been sold.

Esquimalt Lights For Yule Season

Esquimalt municipal hall will glow like a Christmas tree over the Yuletide season.

Councillors Monday night agreed to have all lights turned on from sunset to sunrise from Dec. 20 to Jan. 4. The practice is an annual one, council was told by Reeve A. I. Thomas.

Burden Of Cost Beats Dairyman

Another dairy farmer has been added to the growing list claiming that the high price of feed and low returns from milk is forcing them out of business.

He is Hans Rothgordt of Sidney.

His herd of 23 cows and equipment will be auctioned Thursday.

The farm also is up for sale.

"He just got fed up with the whole situation," said Henry G. Robinson, secretary-manager of Vancouver Island Dairyman's Association. "If something isn't done soon to improve the milk producers' plight, there isn't going to be much milk on the island."

Robinson also reported a Koksilah dairyman is going out of business. This brings to nearly a dozen the number of island dairy farmers who have quit this year.

UNTOUCHABLE RUM STOCKS SWELLING

Another large shipment of rum, due in Victoria soon, may run into the same "blockade" as 112,000 bottles which are still laying untouched at Ogden Point docks because the fumigating officer wasn't on Canada's approved list.

Col. Donald McGugan said today he wouldn't know until the shipment arrived whether the same officer fumigated the latest shipment.

Meanwhile, the liquor commissioner is waiting word from the exporters in the Old Country as to what they want to do about the first shipment. He expects a telegram soon.

The two brands—Lamb's and Lemon Hart which are described as big sellers—are unobtainable in the city.

Councillor Rapped By Colleagues

Saanich Councillor E. P. Cummins had a small war on his hands at council meeting Monday night.

Councillor L. H. Passmore and Reeve Joseph W. Casey both soundly criticized Cummins for a letter he wrote to the press warning against a one-mill increase for sidewalks in the face of the "impact" of unknown sewer costs.

"I was not under the collar myself when I saw it," the reeve said. "Then I said to myself 'who would believe it?'"

Councillor H. K. Bate suggested that statements be restricted to the reeve and committee chairmen.

"That's dictatorship," Cummins snapped. "You can ridicule me all you like, but I feel I have the right to say what I think."

Wage Boost Given Hospital Engineers

New agreements have been signed providing higher pay for engineers and maintenance men in three Vancouver Island hospitals.

The International Union of Operating Engineers (I.O.O.F.), has completed contracts with Royal Jubilee Hospital, Victoria; Queen Alexandra Solarium, Mill Bay, and King's Daughters' Hospital, Duncan.

Jubilee employees coming under the new agreement are to receive a 33-cent-an-hour boost. Solarium workers are to benefit by an increase of 12 cents hourly. At the Duncan hospital, the increase amounts to 7 per cent.

WOMEN URGING MIXED JURIES

At least one woman should be included in the jury on trials for infanticide.

This is the recommendation contained in a resolution of Local Council of Women, approved Monday in a meeting at the Y.W.C.A.

A letter will be addressed to the proper authority covering the point, in view of the fact that in a recent infanticide trial here the jury was all male.

Campaign Speakers Winding Up

Election oratory will flow thick "and fast tonight" as many civic candidates get in their last public appearances before Thursday's election.

Esquimalt and Saanich candidates also will attend a number of meetings before their Saturday election.

Starting gun will fire at 8 tonight in three separate halls for city candidates.

Claude Harrison, mayoralty candidate and Brent Murdoch and J. A. McLellan, aldermanic hopefuls, will hold forth in Loughheed's Banquet Hall, 1406 Douglas. Philip Freedman and other independent candidates will speak at the Sirocco, 1037 View.

Non-Partisan League team will appear at the Connaught Seamen's Institute, 108 Superior.

In Saanich, Cordova Bay Community Club will sponsor a meeting at the community hall, Sutcliffe Road, tonight at 8.

Wednesday night at 8, Saanich council will sponsor a meeting in Mount View School.

Final public election meeting for Central Saanich candidates is in Keating Institute Hall, East Saanich Road, at 8 tonight.

Esquimalt election candidates are going to have order at their final campaign meeting Wednesday night at 7:30 in Bollermeers Hall... or else.

A municipal police constable will be on hand at the hall, Esquimalt and Dunsuir Road, to make certain there is no repetition of the disorder seen at the 1950 campaign meeting. G. K. Sammon, president of Esquimalt Municipal Ratepayers' Association, will be chairman.

Lighthouse Tender Hurries Pre-Christmas Coast Calls

Department of Transport's lighthouse tender Estevan reached her home port of Victoria this morning after a prolonged trip up coast. She ran into rough weather.

Immediately upon arrival, crew members began preparing for one more cruise before Christmas. The ship is scheduled to leave

Weather Downs Big Plane Here

Forty Passengers Completing Trip By Boat To Vancouver; Mild Weather Will Continue

Poor visibility over the mainland just before noon forced a T.C.A. North Star with 40 passengers to land at Patricia Bay instead of Vancouver.

The big ship, en route to Vancouver from Montreal, via Calgary, passed right over Sea Island Airport in favor of the Sidney airstrip.

Passengers will return to Vancouver by boat.

Air line schedules generally have been disrupted by low-lying cloud conditions, produced by a warm air mass centred over this area.

According to weatherman William Mackie, the mild weather will continue tonight and Wednesday with overcast skies, high temperatures, light winds and occasional drizzle.

As far north as Nanaimo similar conditions were reported. Snow lies on some of the higher hills in the Cowichan Lake area, but a recent fall on the Malahat has melted.

GUIDES TOTE EVIDENCE

Record Silvertip Killed

Somewhere in the Burns Lake country, south of Terrace, B.C., two guides are heading toward civilization with what they hope is a record silvertip grizzly skull.

It was shot by Lloyd Walker, co-owner of Seattle's Moore Hotel, on a hunting trip with Dr. Darrell G. Leavitt, also of Seattle.

After Walker shot the huge animal he brought out its hide, and a twig cut to equal the width of the bear's massive skull. It measured 17 inches.

In Seattle, when they learned that the record grizzly of the Davy Crockett League was 16½ inches, they telephoned their B.C. guides to find the skull since it might be a new record.

Estimated weight of the bear was 1,100 pounds. The hide measured 11 by 10 feet, and the big silvertip's claws were four and a half inches in length.

Walker now does more hunting with a motion picture camera than with a gun.

Tonight at 8 he will give a lecture and show films to South Vancouver Island Rangers at their Luxton clubhouse.

Wednesday at 2:15, through arrangements made by A. E. Mourant, Veterans' Hospital recreational supervisor, he will address the hospital patients.

Probation Men Prove Invaluable To Magistrate

Probation officers are an invaluable aid to police magistrates in determining sentences. That came from Magistrate Henry C. Hall today in a talk before the magistrates' convention in Vancouver.

"An important and valuable step forward has been taken in pre-sentence reports of the probation officers' service. There are two distinct branches in our work—the finding of guilt or innocence, and subsequently the imposition of sentence," said Magistrate Hall.

"After finding a person guilty, it is of the utmost help to have the report of a trained officer giving a fairly complete picture of the offender—his upbringing, family, friends and associates, work record so that we can see this person as an individual and deal with him on that basis," said the magistrate.

Magistrate Hall also championed the open and closed Borstal School for youthful offenders, considering them far above other institutions concerned with dealing with young criminals.

Peace Sought In Bakery Dispute

A three-man conciliation board will sit this week to consider matters in dispute between the Bakery and Confectionery Workers International Union (T.L.C.A.F.L.) and three Victoria bakeries.

Firms involved are McGavin Bakeries Ltd., Canadian Bakeries Ltd., and Weston Bakeries Ltd.

Main issue is length of the work week. The union is demanding a five-day week. Also in dispute is the rate of pay for bakery workers, both male and female.

First meeting of the board is scheduled for Thursday.

Once In Awhile You Hit Upon An Outstanding Gift

By PENNY SAVER

You know, you go on and on suggesting this kind of gift and that... then all of a sudden, "out of the blue" you see something really outstanding.

Very often you see this same article all year long and don't give it a second thought until you are looking for something special that is inexpensive in the bargain.

As everyone knows, that is easier said than done.

You may search for ages before you find the right thing and probably in the end you will not be satisfied with what you did buy, that is, unless you happen to choose what I had in mind—a dogwood pin.

Can you think of anything more appropriate to give than our provincial emblem. It would be doubly welcome by a British Columbian who is not living in the province.

Very often it is these people on your list that cause the most worry.

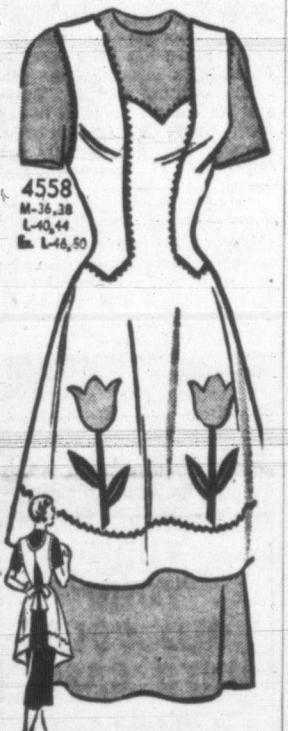

Just take a look at these dogwood pins. There versatility will certainly impress you and when you see how expertly they are made they will sell themselves.

Actually, they are made of a very good quality leather and each detail, so beloved in the dogwood, is captured in the workmanship.

Economy was kept in mind when they were priced at $1.25.

If you ever saw an aristocratic looking dog, this little toy one which, incidentally, squeaks, will top them all.

He has perky little ears and

Study Works Of Composers

Works of Haydn, Mozart and Beethoven comprised the program at the recent meeting of the Young Adult Group, Victoria Musical Arts Society, held at the home of Dr. Rodger Manning. Short biographical sketches of the three composers were given by Mildred Duncan, Winnifred Snape, and Joy Stamford, and their works were illustrated by Vaughan and songs of Doreen Radcliffe and by recordings. Plans for a Christmas concert at the Home for Aged Women were made and the constitution of the group was approved by the members present.

WHY GROW OLD?

By JOSEPHINE LOWMAN

Hair Grey? Want It Dyed? Then Do It Soon And Right

Grey hair can be most attractive.

To dye or not to dye the tresses; that is the question which is bothering many women. This is an individual matter. In the first place, how does grey or greying hair affect you? Does it make you feel older? Actually it shouldn't, because many women grey at quite a youthful age. However, if you feel older because you have it, then by all means do something about it.

If you decide to dye your hair, be sure to have it done by an expert and be prepared to give necessary time and money to its upkeep. There is nothing more unattractive than dyed hair which shows it is dyed, is streaked, or dark or grey at the roots. Do not start unless you are going to do it right. Avoid harsh monotonies with no highlights. Dark dead browns and blacks make your face look

CLUB WOMEN'S NEWS

Institute Fete—Bazaar and tea held by members of Victoria Women's Institute was opened by Mrs. W. Carey, Strawberry Vale Women's Institute. Guests were welcomed by Mrs. C. Johns, president, and Mrs. N. Brown, bazaar convener. In charge of the stalls were: Aprons, sewing, dolls, Mesdames E. Fantiherpe, N. Tanner and E. Robinson; superfluities, Mesdames E. Morris and C. A sum of $80 was realized from the Christmas bazaar.

Christmas IN THE KITCHEN

Little folks love popcorn balls! Cook taffy syrup till it forms a very hard ball in cold water. Remove from heat and add a teaspoon of Shirriff's True Vanilla, Maple or Buttered Caramel flavouring. Tint with a few drops of Shirriff's red or green food coloring. Decorate with fruit, cellophane straw, paper cup hats.

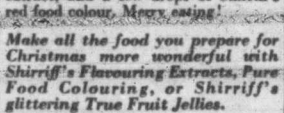

Surprise! It's a red-currant jelly candle to serve with the turkey. Shirriff's tangy True Fruit Jellies can be loosened with a knife and rolled right out of the jar. Cut in half to make a pair of candles. The wick is cream cheese on a toothpick. Another favourite with turkey is Shirriff's Old Time Cranberry Sauce!

Now's the time for candy-making. For melt-in-your-mouth divinity fudge, add a teaspoon of Shirriff's fragrant almond extract, and a few drops of Shirriff's red food colour. Merry eating!

Make all the food you prepare for Christmas more wonderful with Shirriff's Flavouring Extracts, Pure Food Colouring, or Shirriff's glittering True Fruit Jellies.

Everybody loves SHIRRIFF'S

Canadian Housewives Now Take Lowly Leek Seriously; Delicious For Soup

The leek, an onion-like herb largely ignored by Canadian housewives, has come into its own. Europeans who have brought their culinary skills to Canada are pointing up its value.

They have created a demand where, hitherto, none existed. With this demand has come an increase in price.

Leek soup, a favorite dish with the French, is one of the tastiest of luncheon treats.

Ingredients: three good-sized leeks; three medium-sized potatoes.

Wash leeks thoroughly, making certain to get all the sand from the leaves. Cut off some of the top but leave on as much of the green as possible. This gives the soup its effective green color. Cut off root end and slice in half-inch pieces.

Peel and cut potatoes in small chunks. Boil with leeks in just enough water to cover the vegetables when they are pressed to bottom of pot.

When cooked, put leeks and potatoes through vegetable strainer. The thick soup resulting should be reheated, then served with plenty of salt and pepper and a chunk of butter. Crusty bread goes well with this dish.

en says there's nothing like a pair of hand-knitted socks to please a man at Christmas.

However, better not become too ambitious if you're planning to begin knitting Christmas gifts now. For instance, you won't have time to make a knitted dress or skirt before Christmas.

If you're knitting a jacket or bonnet for a new baby, make it larger than his present size. He probably has plenty of things he soon will outgrow.

Discuss Presentation Of Poetical Work

Mrs. J. O. Cameron, right, and Mrs. Audrey St. Denis Johnson go over the poetical work entitled "The Clouds," written by Mrs. Cameron, who is honorary president of the Victoria Musical Arts Society. The poem will be presented by Mrs. Johnson with an appropriate musical background played by Edgar Holloway, at the annual Carol Tea to be given by the society in Memorial Hall, Vancouver Street, on Saturday from 3 until 5. Mrs.

C. C. Wyatt, soprano, will be soloist; dance numbers will be given by pupils of Mrs. E. G. Pepper and Christmas carol music by the Dorothy Francis violin choir. Mrs. W. Ellis, B. 1940, is convening table reservations; Mrs. J. Ingram Smith, the tea; Mrs. G. Phillips and Mr. Holloway, the program. Society president, Dr. Roger Manning, will act as chairman. Admission is by reservation only.

Their Future Home In Vancouver

Mrs. R. W. J. Angus and her daughter Marwyn will leave Victoria on Friday night for Vancouver to join Mr. Angus, who has been in that city for some months, and to make their future home. Miss Angus has been a pupil at St. Margaret's School for Girls and will continue her studies at Crofton House School in the new year.

Married In Duncan To Live Here

A double ring ceremony of interest both here and on the mainland took place recently in Duncan in First United Church, with Rev. F. A. G. G. officiating.

United in marriage were Helen Beatrice Reason, Victoria, daughter of H. A. Hoding, Calgary, Alta., and Carl Edgar Olson, Mesachie Lake, son of Mrs. E. Olson, Biggar, Sask.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, chose a suit of tan with green and rust over-check, pale pink lace blouse, rust hat and accessories, and a corsage of yellow and white carnations.

Mrs. Winnie Berran of Duncan, was matron of honor, and wore a grey suit, green hat and corsage of pink and white carnations. Miss Shirley Smith of Victoria, bridesmaid, wore a beige suit and hat, and a corsage of pink and white carnations.

The couple will make their home in Victoria.

Couple Wed Here Recently To Make Home Up-Island

Mr. and Mrs. William Earl Macleod, who were married recently in St. Andrew's Presbyterian Church, will make their home in Port Alberni following a honeymoon in Parksville.

The bride is the former Eleanor Madge Hamilton, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Hamilton, Campbell River, and the groom is the son of Mrs. Lillian Macleod, Hollywood, Calif., formerly of Medicine Hat, Alta., and the late Dr. J. S. Macleod.

Rev. J. L. W. McLean officiated and W. W. Warren played traditional organ music as the bride walked up the aisle on the arm of her father. Miss Dorothy Heggie sang "Where 'er You Walk" during the signing of the register.

The bride complemented her two-piece beige wool dressmaker suit with a bouquet of green and brown orchids and imported French feather grass with a similar arrangement of the feather grass in her hair.

Matron of honor, Mrs. C. H. Elford, chose a two-piece teal green wool dressmaker suit and carried a bouquet of deep red roses and apricot "Godfrey" chrys.

santhemums with a matching arrangement in her hair.

R. L. McLane was best man and ushers were C. H. Elford and Webster Hamilton, brother of the bride.

A two-tier wedding cake topped with pink rosebuds centred the lace-covered bridal table at the reception at "Rappahannock," Rockland Avenue. The cake was embedded in tulle and rosebuds and flanked by white candles. E. C. Bolin proposed the toast.

Upon leaving for her honeymoon Mrs. Macleod donned a brown covert cloth coat over her bridal ensemble complemented with a brown fur felt hat.

James Bay—The December meeting of James Bay P.T.A. will be held tonight at 8 in South Park School. Program will include dances by pupils of the Velda Wille School; instrumental duet and community carol singing, a mystery door prize and refreshments. On Wednesday evening a card party will be held at the school with door prize and drawing for a lamp.

Local Council Endorses Idea National Aid For Education; Many Reports Given

At the Local Council of Women meeting yesterday in the Y.W.C.A. a questionnaire was endorsed by the meeting from the National Council of Women asking whether there should be federal aid to education. It was felt there could be financial aid from the federal government without necessitating any jurisdiction from them.

Four conveners' reports were heard. Miss Lottie Bowron, migration, deplored the lessening of British immigration to Canada. Dr. Henrietta Anderson reported on moral standards.

Dr. Marion Sherman pointed out that mental health is everyone's job and that if we all practised the arts of fellowship then mental health would be achieved.

Mrs. R. D. Harvey spoke on the C.B.C. set-up and what they hope to achieve with six million dollars they plan to spend each year on television.

Recreation convener Mrs. Blair Reid, reported that several more 60-Up clubs have been started in the city and will be known as community clubs. She also stressed lack of a community centre and felt there should be a recreation commission in the city because the recreation council disbanded early in the new year; it is off the Community Chest.

Miss Ellen Hart reported on problems of immigrants coming into the city and pointed out that there is a desperate need for temporary quarters for them until they find permanent homes.

Dr. Olga Jardine will be guest speaker at the annual meeting of the local council in February.

OF PERSONAL INTEREST

Victorian Married In England

A wedding of interest to Victorians took place in Chelsea, Eng., on Saturday, Dec. 8, 1951, between Muriel Joan Rooney, eldest daughter of Mrs. D. Rooney, 1744 Kisher Avenue, Victoria, and the late Joseph Rooney, and Dr. Lawrence S. McMorris, elder son of Mr. and Mrs. George McMorris, Vancouver B.C. After the reception the bride and groom left on a motor tour of Wales and Northern Ireland, after which they will reside in London.

For Miss Peggy Wharton

Miss Marjorie Coates was hostess at the tea hour Sunday afternoon at her home Palmer Road, to honor Miss Peggy Wharton, whose marriage to Mr. Jack Clarke takes place next Saturday. Gifts of china were concealed in a wishing well and presented to the honor guest with a Christmas corsage. Her mother, Mrs. C. F. Wharton, also received a corsage.

The tea table was centred with an arrangement of Christmas roses and pink candles in crystal holders. Mrs. A. Coates assisted her daughter in receiving the guests, and Mrs. C. Copeland, Mrs. J. Genest, Mrs. R. Patterson and Miss Wendy Copeland were servers.

Others present were Mrs. J. B. Lawson, Mrs. R. McRae, Mrs. D. Hughes, Mrs. E. Dowell, Mrs. T. French, Mrs. J. Allison, Mrs. P. Campbell, Mrs. E. G. Hart, Mrs. G. Harris, Mrs. J. D. Barton, Mrs. G. McIntosh, Misses Eileen Langin, Ida Casillo, Mildred Williams, Connie Chrow and Iris Vallance.

Miss Wharton was also honored when Mrs. J. H. Allison and Mrs. J. Genest entertained at the home of the latter on Athlone Drive, with a miscellaneous shower. Gifts were arranged on a decorated Christmas tree. Corsage bouquets were presented to both the honor guest and her mother. Presiding at the refreshment table were Mrs. C. F. Wharton and Mrs. Reg Patterson and assisting as servitors, Mrs. C. Campbell, Misses Marjorie Coates and Miss Connie Chrow.

Others present were Mesdames A. Dowell, E. Dowell, J. Lawson, J. Smith, G. Laird, H. McClung, G. Harris, C. Miller, F. Dunn, C. Tomlinson, G. McIntosh, D. Hughes, D. Reynolds, C. Copeland, L. Excell, C. Hickman, E. Queale, Misses S. Dowell and K. Brenton.

Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Ford and their small son, David, are arriving from Port Moody on Friday to spend the holiday season. They will stay with Mrs. Ford's parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Baker, 2420 San Carlos Avenue.

Out-of-town guests at the recent wedding of Miss Eleanor Madge Hamilton and Mr. William Earl Macleod were Dr. and Mrs. J. L. Macleod, Powell River; Mr. and Mrs. R. L. McLane, Vancouver; Mr. and Mrs. T. Power, Port Alberni; and Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Bolin, Duncan.

Miss Frances Holmes, December bride-elect, was honored at a party shower recently when Mrs. Douglas Mauer entertained in her Freeman Road home. The guest of honor was presented with a gardenia corsage and the groom-elect's mother, Mrs. W. H. Bradbeer, received pink roses. Gifts were concealed in a pink and white decorated box. Invited guests were Mesdames W. E. Holmes, G. Hing, L. Patterson, B. G. Mauer, W. B. Moore, E. Fitzgerald, C. Hemon and A. Darbell.

Penny Sale Realizes $1,000

A preliminary report of the "Penny Sale" sponsored jointly by Navy League Chapter and Alden Hamber Chapter, I.O.D.E., showed approximately $1,000 realized.

Other reports at the recent meeting of the Alden Hamber Chapter were given by Mrs. J. B. McClung, child and family welfare convener, who said pajamas, sleepers and blis had been purchased for younger children at the Orphanage and that Christmas hampers and gifts for a needy family of 10 will be packed and delivered by members. Miss Peggy MacNeill, educational secretary, said books and gifts will be sent to children at the chapter's adopted school at Bear Creek Camp. Mrs. M. Campbell, treasurer, reported that $20.40 was realized from the sale of Christmas cards and gift wrapping.

Next meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. G. R. Laird on Jan. 9.

Work Sale—At a recent meeting of women's auxiliary, Metropolitan United Church, a sale of work was held and afternoon tea served. Mrs. A. M. Holder presided and Mrs. E. Holloway reported for the nominating committee.

IN NEW CLUBROOM

B. & P.W. Club Initiates Five Members: Hear Speaker

Five new members, Miss Hilda Harding, Dr. Ann Steele, Mrs. Ada Sharman, Mrs. R. Watson and Mrs. Hilda Weston, were initiated at a meeting of Victoria Business and Professional Women's Club, held yesterday evening in the new clubrooms, 904 Government Street.

Membership convener, Miss Ethel Kitts, was in charge and others taking part in the brief ceremony were Miss Elizabeth Forbes, Mrs. Bessie Smith and Miss Verna Beck.

Miss Helena Cruickshank reported Christmas parcels sent to a sister club in Coventry, Eng., and to a former member in Scotland. It was decided to give a donation of money and candy to the Y.W.C.A. for its Christmas dinner for elderly women.

Following the business session, James Nesbitt, well-known writer, newspaper columnist and radio commentator, gave a most interesting address on the life of Emily Carr. He was introduced by Miss Forbes and thanked by Miss Ethel Gray.

Nursing Home Auxiliary Makes $175 At Bazaar-Tea

Christmas music and point-to-point decorations transformed the mural room of the Y.M.C.A. for the annual tea and bazaar of the Victoria Nursing Home Auxiliary. Proceeds were $175.

Mrs. C. C. Warren and Mrs. R. K. Simpson welcomed guests. Those presiding at the tea urns were Mrs. J. Murray Anderson, Mrs. P. J. Scurrah, Mrs. Florence Mutrie and Dr. Laura Holland. Those serving were Mrs. W. McGregor, Mrs. C. Dodgson, Mrs. G. Horwood, Miss M. McIntosh and Miss A. Collins.

Mrs. Austin Curtis was convener and tea arrangements were made by Mrs. S. Naysmith, assisted by Mrs. J. L. Gayton, Mrs. H. Kolb and Mrs. M. Stevens.

Those assisting with stalls were Mrs. I. Wooley, Mrs. I. Catterall, Mrs. R. Vickers, Mrs. R. Ferrie, Mrs. S. Phillips, Mrs. A. Banks, Mrs. F. Greenway, Mrs. G. Holt, Mrs. R. Aitken, Mrs. M. Brethour, Mrs. C. Coleman and Mrs. B. Quintance. Music was supplied by Mrs. Fred Wilmshurst and Mrs. J. H. Radcliffe was at the door.

The auxiliary will meet at the home of Mrs. M. Christie, Dec. 18, to pack parcels for the patients of the nursing home. Remaining bazaar proceeds will go toward the proposed new 100-bed ward.

Pupils' Recital

Pupils of Miss Dorothy Francis who took part in the recital of chamber music recently included Elizabeth Spouse and Mary Cameron, piano solos; Bernard Rain and Allan Tregear, violin solos; John and William Oulton and Ilace Norris, violin and piano trio; and a string ensemble, Bernard Rain, Jeanne McGinnis, Ann Robertson, Douglas Eriksen, Anthony Gobbels, Eugene Hultgren, Daryl Logan, violins; Margarette Hultgreen, cello; Mary Cameron, piano, and eight-year-old Eric Carlsen, trumpet. A sum of $20 was collected for the Solarium.

Lip-Smacking Chateau Snacks!

Chateau and Bacon... Spread split hamburger roll or bread with mellow Chateau (it spreads, slices, melts to perfection). Top with bacon. Broil till the rich cheese goodness has soaked in. Make plenty—the family or guests will go for them! Chateau adds taste-tempting goodness and protein nourishment to any snack or meal!

Chateau Sandwich Snacks... Since Chateau is not a sliced cheese you don't have to expose the whole package for a few slices. The remainder stays covered... stays fresh! Spread always-fresh Chateau on bread, then cover with any of these delightful variations: slices of hard-cooked egg; sliced boiled ham; chopped crisp bacon or salmon... but remember always use Chateau to make sandwiches sing!

BEDTIME STORY

by Thornton W. Burgess

Peter Rabbit was hurrying after an old acquaintance. "Hi!" he cried. "You ought to be asleep!" His old acquaintance paid no attention to him. He kept right on marching along one of Peter's little paths. He was hurrying. But because he was a very small person, Peter caught up with him in three jumps. Peter jumped right over him and stopped in front of him. "Hi, Woolly Bear!" he cried. "Where are you going in such a hurry?"

Woolly Bear stopped. He had to. Peter was in his way. You see, he wasn't a real bear at all. Why Woolly Bear is called a bear nobody knows. There is nothing bear-like about him unless it is perhaps the color of his coat. He is a caterpillar, and some day will be a handsome moth, flying about instead of crawling, and that is something no bear can ever do.

"I don't know, but I'm on my way," replied Woolly Bear in reply to Peter's question.

"For one who doesn't know where he is going, you seem to be in an awful hurry," said Peter.

"I am," replied Woolly Bear. "I wish you would please get out of my way."

"If you don't know where you are going, how will you know when you get there?" asked Peter.

"I'll know," said the little caterpillar confidently. "Just get out of my way, please."

Peter stepped aside. Woolly Bear hurried on. His woolly coat was black at each end and brown in the middle. If he didn't know where he was going, he certainly acted as if he did. He marched straight along that little path without turning to one side or the other.

"Aren't you out very late?" Peter wanted to know.

Woolly Bear made no reply; he marched straight on. He was going somewhere, and he meant to get there. There was no doubt about that.

"All the other caterpillars I know wrapped themselves up and went to sleep long ago. Why didn't you?"

Woolly Bear stopped for just a minute. The little path branched and he seemed uncertain which branch to take. "I'm different from other caterpillars," he muttered.

"How are you different from other caterpillars?" asked Peter.

"We Woolly Bears have fur coats. Have you ever seen any other caterpillar with coats like ours?" replied Woolly Bear.

"Now you mention it, I don't think I have," replied Peter. "I've seen other caterpillars with thin hairy coats, but yours is a regular fur coat."

"If it wasn't, I wouldn't be able to live through the cold weather," said Woolly Bear.

Windsors Laugh At Rift Rumors

NEW YORK, Dec. 11 (AP).—The Duke and Duchess of Windsor, arriving from England Monday, laughingly scoffed at rumors of a marital rift.

"It must be wishful thinking," the Duchess quipped. "There surely must be some exciting young couple you can write about. We're old and threadbare."

A columnist recently hinted domestic trouble between the couple. "They can't think up anything new to say," the Duke told reporters. "They said that last year."

The couple, who returned on the liner Queen Elizabeth, said they will spend the Christmas season in New York and then go south.

Canada, U.S. Get Plenty Of Whisky

LONDON, Dec. 11 (Reuters).—The United States and Canada will still get top priority, the Scotch Whisky Association said Monday in announcing increased exports for next year. The increase is to be 500,000 proof gallons, bringing the export total to 10,350,000 gallons.

Gyros Hear Story Of 'Y'

Story of the Y.M.C.A.'s work in far-flung corners of the world was told Gyros at a club meeting in the Empress Hotel Monday.

Narrator was Floyd A. Wilson, acting executive secretary of the association's branch in Bangkok, Thailand, who has just returned from the Far East where he was stationed for five years.

He told the luncheon meeting more Bhuddist youngsters were turning to Christianity through the Y.M.C.A. every day.

Among other things, the "Y" was teaching English to the people of Thailand.

Wilson told of introducing American sports and dancing to the natives, and he said the "Y" was helping to develop improved social conditions.

F.B.I. Arrest Noted Criminal

NEW YORK, Dec. 11 (AP).—The F.B.I. today arrested Giachino Anthony Baccola, 34, one of America's 10 most wanted men.

He was sought for obstruction of justice and in connection with the slaying of a Detroit witness in a federal theft case.

Baccola was seized without incident, the F.B.I. said, although he was once described as willing to kill to escape capture. He had been sought since June.

Canada, U.S. Get Plenty Of Whisky

LONDON, Dec. 11 (Reuters).—The United States and Canada will still get top priority, the Scotch Whisky Association said Monday in announcing increased exports for next year. The increase is to be 500,000 proof gallons, bringing the export total to 10,350,000 gallons.

IN TUNE WITH THE TIMES

With TOMMIE WALTERS,
"Our visitors have left—we've closed the door, and are alone again.
We've wished them Godspeed on their way and now take stock on what we've shown them."

Thus a fellow newsman introduces his impressions of the Royal Tour of Canada. Ev. Dutton, who is news editor of radio station CKRC in Winnipeg, and one of two private station newsmen to accompany the Prince and Princess all across Canada, so moved by the tour and what we had to show our distinguished visitors, that he felt compelled to set his thoughts on paper. In what has been described as a superb piece of free poetry and "Farewell to a Princess," Dutton extolls the vast Canadian "breadbasket"—without detracting in any way from the magnificence of our nation at large.

Three staff members of CJVI liked the work so well they set about the task of preparing it for broadcast. Lacking a full orchestra, slowly and painstakingly, the three, Frank Thompson, Laurie Dillabough and Stan Peters, have utilized a series of multiple turntables and more than a score of transcriptions to weave a musical montage for a suitable background behind Thompson's narration. This piece of technical skill is much more difficult than using a live orchestra. By choosing a bar here and two or three notes there, they have been able to adapt a musical theme to suit the mood of the spoken word and will broadcast the whole at 6.30 tonight over CJVI. Those of us who have had the opportunity to hear it agree that it is a particularly fine effort. In view of the reception already accorded the production, the station management now has a transcription of "Farewell to a Princess," with musical background, winging its way to Clarence House for approval of the Royal Couple.

BEWILDERING BEQUESTS

Philanthropist's Tangled Will
Poser For Supreme Court Judge

A Supreme Court judge will have to interpret next month one of the most difficult wills brought to court here in years.

The will is that of Walter Harrington Cowlshaw, a kindly philanthropist, who died here at the age of 81 in October, 1951, leaving about $24,000 to various charities, institutions, churches and individuals.

Cowlshaw's will, however, is one of the most confusing testaments ever filed in Supreme Court. As a result, a large part of his estate will go towards payment of court costs and fees of lawyers and solicitors.

The bulk of his estate he left to "a committee of London, England, honorable gentlemen to help such as those suffering as the result of the blitz." He made special reference to the people of Putney, London.

As there is no such organization, seven English institutions have claimed the right to distribute the bequest to people suffering from wounds as a result of the war.

These are: Queen Elizabeth's Training College for the Disabled, St. Mary's Putney Relief Committee, Royal Hospital and Home for Incurables, The Limb Centre, Queen Mary's Hospital, The Charity Commission of the City of London, and the Richard Cusden Homes.

GOVERNMENT CLAIM

To complicate the issue further, Britain's Attorney-General, through J. A. Byers, of Victoria, filed notice that he should receive the money as protector of all charitable institutions in England. Then four distant relatives in England claim the estate, alleging the will fails as none of the beneficiaries legally exists.

John McConnell, counsel for the executor of the estate, The Royal Trust, said he didn't know where it would all end. "It seems to be getting more complicated," he said. "I've even got telephone calls from London about the matter."

The will is complicated, too, by Cowlshaw's bequests to local charitable and church institutions in Victoria.

He left $200 for the "Crippled Children Institute." There is no such organization in Victoria. The city and the Queen Alexandra Solarium are both claiming the bequest.

A sum of $100 was also left by Cowlshaw to provide a "wheel chair for a veteran of the First Great War, where worthy and necessary. The judge in this case will have to decide what institution is to receive the $100.

The judge will also have to interpret what Cowlshaw meant when he bequeathed $100 to Christ Church Cathedral Broadcast.

Greatest irony of all is in the last touching words which Cowlshaw penned on his will: "The above bequests I feel are bestowed by God's grace and power through his money has enabled to prosper me in my endeavor by prudent investment, not by gambling, but by honest trading, to bestow in a small way in helping such unfortunates in a Christian brotherhood to obtain such comforts."

It's so easy to relieve coughs and stuffiness of colds in a hurry this home-proved way... with 2 spoonfuls of Vicks VapoRub in a vaporizer or in a bowl of boiling water as directed in package.

Just breathe in the steam! Every single breath carries VapoRub's soothing medications deep into throat and large bronchial tubes. It medicates irritated membranes, helps restore normal breathing. For coughs or upper bronchial congestion there's nothing like using Vicks VapoRub in steam.

For continued relief always rub it on throat, chest and back.

AUTO INSURANCE RATES UP

11 TO 34%

Hike Effective Jan. 1 Due To Traffic Toll

VANCOUVER, Dec. 11 (CP).—Increased traffic toll on the highways today brought an announcement of higher automobile insurance rates for British Columbia motorists.

The increases, effective Jan. 1, range from 11.2 to 34 per cent, the higher rate applying to policy holders who allow drivers under 25 years of age to use their cars.

"The public sets its own insurance rates," said a spokesman for the B.C. Underwriters' Association.

Drivers under 25 have had what was termed a "terrifying record" of spectacular and costly accidents.

The increase does not apply to existing policies until the renewal date.

For policy holders who allow drivers under 25 years of age to use their cars the premiums have been raised an average of 27.2 per cent throughout the province.

In the Greater Vancouver area this will only be increased by 20.4 per cent, while on Vancouver Island the rates are raised 33 per cent and 34 per cent in rural areas.

For autos not allowing drivers under 25 the average B.C. increase is 1.2 per cent.

The rate increases are for private pleasure cars carrying fire and theft, $50 deductible and bodily injury and property damage policies. The last is required under B.C.'s pink slip law.

Insurance for private cars used for business purposes goes up 16.6 per cent.

The independent automobile conference of B.C., which represents most of the non-board companies who write about 50 per cent of car insurance in the province, is expected to announce similar increases.

The underwriters announced an extension of protection of existing policies. The new scheme will go into effect with all insurance companies in Canada with the exception of those in Newfoundland and Quebec.

The added protection will extend coverage to replacement cars used while the owner's car is being repaired. Coverage will be extended to insure a new car or second car for 14 days, pending notification of the insurer.

Collision, theft and fire policies now will include attachments in cars such as radios. It will not cover two-way radios.

The public will be able to buy other protection also, such as medical expenses incurred by passengers who suffer bodily harm caused by an accident while in the insured car.

Comprehensive coverage which includes in addition to fire and theft, protection against glass breakage, loss caused by missiles, floods, vandalism and other perils. This would not include collision.

Big Four Will Resume Talks On A-Bomb Ban

PARIS, Dec. 11 (UP).—The Big Four announced today they have agreed to resume talks on outlawing the atomic bomb and on general disarmament in a new United Nations commission.

Britain immediately warned against letting hopes for disarmament be raised "falsely."

The United States, Britain, France and Russia disclosed agreement in a communique summarizing the failure otherwise of their 10-day effort to reconcile conflicting East-West views on disarmament. Both held out strongly for discussion on their own terms.

Debate on the Big Four report in the 60-nation political committee of the U.N. was opened today by British delegate Selwyn Lloyd. The debate is expected to bring a Russian vote against the West's disarmament plan.

HOPES OF MILLIONS
Speaking for all Big Three western powers, Lloyd said that although there was agreement in principle on the machinery for discussing disarmament, the Big Four totally disagreed on the major issues to be discussed—especially control of the atomic bomb.

The amendment makes it an offence to drive while ability is impaired by alcohol.

Judge Hanna allowed the appeal of Hugh Lestander of Ladysmith, B.C., after defense counsel Ronald F. McIsaac challenged the power of magistrates to suspend licenses. He claimed the amendment did not confer this power on magistrates.

Lestander was convicted here Oct. 10 and was fined $100 and forbidden to drive for a year.

Judge Hanna's finding sustained the fine, but restored his right to drive.

Judge's Ruling May Cause Appeal

NANAIMO, B.C., Dec. 11 (CP).—A decision by Judge Arnold Hanna in county court here today may result in a flood of appeals from motorists whose driver's licenses were suspended under a recent amendment to the criminal code.

The amendment makes it an offence to drive while ability is impaired by alcohol.

Judge Hanna allowed the appeal of Hugh Lestander of Ladysmith, B.C., after defense counsel Ronald F. McIsaac challenged the power of magistrates to suspend licenses. He claimed the amendment did not confer this power on magistrates.

Lestander was convicted here Oct. 10 and was fined $100 and forbidden to drive for a year.

Judge Hanna's finding sustained the fine, but restored his right to drive.

REQUEST FOR ROMANCE

Royal Couple Share Part In Gay Evening

By ROBERT MUSEL

LONDON, Dec. 11 (UP).—Requests by Princess Elizabeth and the Duke of Edinburgh for "One Kiss" and "Sweethearts" added a romantic touch to one of the "bluest" shows ever produced before British royalty.

A bevy of American stage and screen stars and some of Britain's top entertainers presented the audience with a series of the most cherished songs ever heard in public by the Royal family.

Princess Elizabeth, wearing a silver blue gown, and the Duke sat in a box to the right of the Coliseum Theatre. He is president of the N.P.F.A. and chairman of the benefit committee.

After a series of double-meaning jokes, British comedian and master of ceremonies Tommy Trinder said:

"Every time I crack a gag everybody looks to the right. What's happening?"

The mimicked and jeweled audience looked right again during a racy Sadlers Wells ballet called "Facade," in which a male dancer pointedly examines the "facade" of his female partner.

The audience applauded vigorously when Princess Elizabeth requested opera star Dorothy Kirsten to sing "One Kiss" from the opera "The Moon."

At the end of the show, when Miss Kirsten returned for an encore, the audience again thrilled as the Duke requested "Sweethearts."

The American contingent in what promises to be an annual affair eclipsing the Royal command show received generous reception—particularly film stars Rhonda Fleming and Janet Leigh, whose beauty was cheered as much as their singing.

Frank Sinatra, who helped arrange the affair, sang, but his new wife, actress Ava Gardner, suffered stage fright and begged off at last night's rehearsal. However, she took a bow from a seat in the audience.

The show wound up with Miss Kirsten and Sinatra singing "The Star-Spangled Banner," after which cast and audience joined in "God Save the King."

BULLETINS

Lili Innocent

HOLLYWOOD, Dec. 11 (UP).—A jury of 10 women and two men found Lili St. Cyr innocent of lewd exposure today after deliberating two hours and 45 minutes.

No Control Sought

VANCOUVER, Dec. 11 (CP).—Millionaire financier Ronald Graham said today he knows of no organized group seeking control of the Hudson's Bay Company.

Earlier reports from the east the Vancouver financier was mentioned as the head of a group of western financiers planning to get control of Canada's oldest firm.

Hungary Replies

BUDAPEST, Dec. 11 (AP).—Hungary replied today to a U.S. request for the release of four fliers whose C-47 plane was forced down by Soviet fighters Nov. 19. The note failed to mention the fliers and dimmed previous hopes for their early release.

The Hungary government handed a note to the U.S. Budapest legation, replying formally to an American note of Dec. 6, which expressed regret for violation of Hungarian air.

Orders were laid down by Chief of Police John Blackstock today that, except in minor cases, the prosecutor must be consulted by all ranks of the police department before charges are laid.

This ended the dispute brought to a head last Saturday when Proudfoot, who has held the post two months, threatened to resign unless he had firmer control over the laying of charges.

The prosecutor's complaint, it was learned, was that sometimes when charges were laid, the evidence did not back them up in court and they had to be withdrawn. He claimed he should be consulted first.

Under the new directive by the chief to the department "all matters must be referred to the prosecutor before charges are laid, other than violations of the streets traffic by-law, speeding or drunk in a public place."

"In the event a man is arrested and it is necessary to proceed with the charge without the knowledge of the prosecutor, then all the circumstances must be set out to the prosecutor before the charge goes to court," the chief ordered.

Cooper Denies West Canadian Bid For H.B.C.

LONDON, Dec. 11 (CP).—Sir Patrick Ashley Cooper, governor of Hudson's Bay Company, issued a statement today denying suggestions that control of the company may be shifted to Canada.

The company's headquarters "continue in London, its policies remain unaltered, its assets stay intact," Sir Patrick said.

He said there is no support whatever for reports published Monday in Toronto, and reprinted by British newspapers, that a group of Western Canadian financiers is trying to obtain control.

These reports were inspired by "considerable" recent activity in Hudson's Bay shares. It was true there was some movement of shares from the United Kingdom to Canada, but the number of shares held in that country totaled less than 12 per cent of the company's capital.

See 'H' Tories are still worritin' at Abbott about his budget surplus. Used 't' be the a teller who kept th' country solvent got praise, not abuse.

Pity some of them vaudeville-talent scouts weren't around last night. They're overlookin' some mighty promisin' material amongst our local candidates.

Makin' great progress at Paris, th' reports say. Seems they're finally discoverin' exactly what it is they disagree about.

Collision Death Brings Charge

Victoria Driver Free On $3,000 Bail On Manslaughter Count; No Inquest Set

Following death of accident victim Mrs. Jean Taylor, 70, of Ladysmith, a charge of manslaughter was laid against a young motorist at a special sitting of Saanich police court today.

Charged was Leslie Marlow, 1303 Yates. He was remanded to Dec. 20 at the request of counsel, Arthur Dave, to set a date for the preliminary hearing.

Injured last Friday afternoon in a Gorge Road West collision, Mrs. Taylor died in Jubilee Hospital at 6:30 today.

Mrs. Taylor suffered fractured legs and other injuries, police said.

Magistrate A. I. Thomas set bail at $3,000 for Marlow.

Mrs. Taylor's death was the 13th recorded from traffic accidents this year on Victoria and district highways. It was the fourth death in Saanich for the year.

Cars driven by Marlow and Mrs. Christine Harris, 45, of Sairair Station Road, Ladysmith, daughter of the dead woman, collided just west of Harriet Road in the Gorge hill curve, Saanich police reported.

Mrs. Harris is still in Jubilee Hospital. Her condition is reported as good.

Marlow was also injured in the crash. He appeared in court wearing a bandage on his forehead.

No inquest date has been set to probe the circumstances of the death of Mrs. Taylor.

BINGO RULING IRKS WOMEN

MOUNDVILLE, W.Va., Dec. 11 (AP).—Fifteen women bingo players threatened to throw Police Chief Raymond Gillespie into the Ohio River for shutting down their games.

Mayor Wilbert Minor last week ordered the city police department to wipe out illegal gambling.

After hearing the women at a city council meeting Monday night the mayor said his edict did not include bingo.

'Yankee Clipper' Quits; Baseball No Longer Fun

NEW YORK, Dec. 11 (UP).—Joe DiMaggio retired today after 13 seasons as one of the greatest stars in baseball.

DiMaggio said he hasn't decided about his future, but Yankee president Dan Topping said, "Joe will remain in some capacity with the Yankees."

The New York Yankee slugger "famed the world over as 'The Yankee Clipper'" announced his decision at a dramatic press conference.

DiMaggio had been fading the past two seasons at the age of 37—but before that he spent 13 seasons as a big league star and four before that as a star of the San Francisco club in the Pacific Coast League.

"I told you fellows last spring," DiMaggio said in announcing his decision, "I only wish I could have had a better year but even if I had hit .350 this would have been the last year for me."

"You all know I have had more than my share of physical injuries and setbacks during my career."

"In recent years these have been much too frequent to laugh off. When baseball is no longer fun, it is no longer a game, and so I've played my last game of ball."

DiMaggio, who played in 10 world series during his 13 seasons with the Yankees, did not immediately announce his future plans.

"I feel that I have reached the stage where I can no longer produce for my ball club, my manager, my teammates and my fans the sort of baseball their loyalty to me deserves," he said.

Vancouver Stocks Closing Prices
Alberta Distillers advanced from 3.15 to 3.20 on Vancouver Stock Exchange this afternoon. Also stronger were Vanolia at .70 and A.P. Con. at .70. The bid on Silvan was raised to 1.35 and Kootenay Belle advanced to 1.00. On the lower side was Canadian Western Lumber at 10 1/2.

Other transactions—Giant Mascot, 88; Quatsino, 45; Western Uranium, 3.90; Premier Border, 3.4; American Standard, 28; Powell River, 27.00; Silbak Premier, .61, and Royal Canadian 16.6 cents.
